FACT AND FANCE

Hans Makart, the Vienna painter, has married a ballet girl. In Floyd county, Tenn., last week, four brothers named Burnett married four sisters named Beary.

Mr. Tershima, the new Japanese minister to America, is a scholar, and among other accomplishments speaks English readily. A young negro law student has just been refused admission to the Massachussets bar, not on account of his color, nor for failure to pass the examination, but because he had written a blackmailing letter.

The hatred of Chinamen in San Francisco is not so invariable as to prevent Wun Lung's restaurant from tecoming rather Lung's restaurant from tecoming rather fashionable. Wealthy people go there to drink tea, which is served without sugar or milk, in the most delicate of decorated cups, and closely covered to prevent the escape of aroma. Chinese dried fruits and other dainties are also attractions.

In Judge Malon's court, at Athens, Ala.,

In Judge Malon's court, at Athens, Ala, a very amusing case was heard. In the cause of the State versus Harry Easter, colored, the proof showed that at a colored sacramental meeting over in Elk the pastor refused to let any member of the congregation take the sacrament unless he put ten cents in the plate. At the collection Harry Easter desired to put in five sents. He gave the deacon a dollar, and was given, among the change therefor, a nickel with a hole in it, which he put in the plate. The pastor desired all who had contributed to stand up, and Harry arose with the rest, whereupon the pastor remarked that Easter had only contributed two and a half cents. A general hubbub ensued, during which "fragrance"—as one of the witnesses called the fracas—an old man who had brought in his sack, and with it and his old woman bolted the meeting.

It is a remarkable fact that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is as good for internal as external use. For disease of the lungs and throat, and for rheumatism, neuralgia, crick in the back, wounds and sores, it is the best known temedy, and much trouble is saved by having it always on hand.

The Wallington status in London, over the best known remedy, and much trouble is saved by having it always on hand.

The Wellington statue in London, over which so much fun has been made, is to be removed from its present elevated position at Hyde park corner, and the English press seem to be unanimous in the hope that it will be taken to some place where it will be invisible. When it was first erected by popular subscription, its merits as a likeness at a fashionable London theatre, the Gayety, is hissed nearly every evening, not because her acting is not pleasing, but in consequence of a scandal in which she is involved.

A correspondent asks:—"What time in the year do the days begin to shorten?"
When you have a note in the bank. A note in bank is the greatest annihilator of time. The days are crowded together in thin layers, and the nights are like a smeat from the blacking brush.
