are putting up with the stuff they buy at the stores, merely because they can't get better, for which they would gladly pay a higher price. We have not heard of any new cream-uries being started in this section, but would strongly urge on our farmer friends the neces-sity of taking the matter up at once. The united counties are unequalled for dairying purposes, but the farmers are wasting thous-ands of dollars every year because they don't keep up with the procession.
