is singular that it has been lost sight of foundation and cause of this whole talk of political union, "continent to which we be long," and annexation. Now, when the thing has borne its characteristic fruit, Sir Oliver repudiates the latter, but has not so far repudiated the thing itself. Mr. Blake has given his weighty opinion of what he believes the tendency of the policy is. Does Sir Oliver now agree with that estimate? Of course he could not have held that view when he blessed the little barque and threw a bottle of wine (figuratively, of course over the now-laid deck.

Toronto is Just Right.

In the first class the Oriole walked away from the Vreda and was never passed. She won by about half a minute, corrected time. The Aggle did not find the White Wings a very formidable competitor in the de-foot clas, and won as she liked. She also gets the Murray Cap.

Zelma Dinah and Psyche were the 40-foot trie, but in this class, too, the racing was hollow and the Fife cutter was an easy victor, with Dinah second.

Vision, Cyprus and Alert measured speed in the 35-foot class, but the Cobourg boat slipped past her rivals in great style and won by over an hour. Alert was second. The typrus get a very bad start, and was 25 minutes late in cross in the line.

Vedotte, Erma and Volante were contestants for the prize in the 30-footers; the former proved speedler and led all the way round. Erma followed her a good second and Volante was the tail-ender.

Nox. Maud B, Salola and a host of small boats tried to capture the 25-foot trophy, but the Maud B managed to get the first place after a closs race, with Nox second and Salola third.

Gwendoline, Ethel and Canuck were the first three in the 24-foot class. Thuy finished in the order named on corrected time.

Welcomed at Asbury Park.

New York, July 28.—Arthur Zimmerman, the Yankee champion 'cyclist of England, returned from his triumphant tour abroad yesterday on the record holder City of Paris, bringing with him a trunk full of gold and silver prizes and three coveted championship emblems.

When the steamer arrived off the Park Founder Bradley came off in a big surf boat and welcomed the modest wheelman on behalf of the 5000 people gathered on the beach to greet him. In speaking of his experiences in England dimmerman said he was delighted with his trip. He did poorly at first, he explained, owing to be climate. He regards American wheelmen as uperfor to the English racing men and thinks here are plenty of fast riders here who could nock the tar out of the fast ones on the other ide.
