TORONTO IN THE B.B. SWIM.

BO IT IS BEATEN BY AN AUTHORITY IN BUFFALO.

What Brings A. Spalding to Toronto?

—Franklin of Blountville Also Wants to Swim in the Eastern League—They May Have the Don Grounds for $1500 Per Annum.

Still Uncle Sam's diamond magnates are looking towards Toronto. Rasty Wright investigated this city and concluded it inadvisable to place a team here. He had an option on the Don grounds until Jan. 1 for $1500.

This gave his proposed club the privilege of playing 62 games thereon, and Proprietor Smith could rent his field to the amateurs while the salaries were being paid on a hunt. Last month Wright announced that he did not want the field and located it in Detroit. But the cranks may not be doomed to disappointment, as this encouraging dispatch for them was received from Buffalo last night:

"The prospects that Toronto will be in the Eastern Baseball League this summer are becoming brighter and brighter every day."

"It may be almost stated as a fact that Canada's Queen City will be one more in the baseball swim."

Franklin of Blountville, the manager of the Providence Grays, is taking an interest in the matter and has written to President Franklin that he will be in Buffalo within a few days to talk over the matter, and will endeavor to get a little financial assistance. He will be in Buffalo within a few days to talk over the matter, and will endeavor to get a little financial assistance. He will be in Buffalo within a few days to talk over the matter, and will endeavor to get a little financial assistance.

However, when it is known that no less a person than Mr. A. G. Spalding, the New York and Chicago magnate, will be in Toronto to-day or to-morrow, local enthusiasts may seriously consider the above report better if the financial assistance were from Blountville.

THE SHEPHERD HANDICAP.

The Great Sprinting Event Won By a Hot

One of the hottest favorites in recent years won the Christmas Sprint Handicap at Sheffield, England. The historic event had 50 professional competitors, with 200 runners.

The handicapper, George W. Atkinson, who was in charge of the event, said that the race was one of the most exciting he had ever seen. The winner, a horse named "The Shepherd," was owned by Mr. J. D. Doyle, of London.

The race was run on a track that was 1 1/2 miles long. The winner, "The Shepherd," was a three-year-old colt, bred by Mr. J. D. Doyle, of London.
