

were here to see them. Some would offer $30, some $50, and some $75. I wanted the $100, and would have castrated them rather than have sold such as there for less. Parties are offering light reds and whites, black noses, and such like, almost for a song, and this spoils the sale of those of a better quality. If our brother farmers would ship such to Toronto or Montreal, when from two to three months old, they would save money. One of my bulls went to Jas. Smith, Camlachie, and the other to Jas. Langstaff & Sons, Wallaceburg, Ont. Have a fine roan bull calf, Lord Stanley, which weighed, when dropped, 98 lbs. Sire, Commander, by imp. Vermillion (50537), bred by F. R. Shore & Bro., White Oak, and dam, Scottish Rose. I would like any one to show how a good calf can be sold for less than $100 when it has sucked the cow for seven months, and is fed chop twice a day. Our stock bull is Seraphina Duke, by 6th Earl of Antrim—1212—, and bred by J. Cowan & Sons, Galt.

Rolph, Markham, $1210; bull calf, Columbine's John Bull, Mr. Lock, West Paris, Me., $440; cow, Etta of Riverview (9338), Hon. J. H. McDonald, Esq., Mich., $330; cow, Eastern Star (30145), A. M.
