Appeal.

Your kind assistance is earnestly invited on behalf of the Church, people of Berwick and Waterville who appeal to you for aid in the restoration of their church.

This building is in such a dilapidated condition that its restoration should be immediate and complete and this will cost not less than $350.

We are doing what we can to raise this amount, but we are less than fifty in number and being for the most part dependent upon manual labor for support, our means are so limited that unless we receive help from our friends outside it will be impossible to do so. We therefore earnestly intreat you to help us, assuring you that the smallest contribution will be thankfully received and faithfully applied to the purpose for which it is given.

THE CLERICAL SECRETARY, 34 Barrington St. Halifax, has kindly consented to receive contributions or they may be sent to

THE REV. WM. ELLIS,
CHRIST CHURCH PARSONAGE,
BERWICK, N. S.

Notes.

Rev. A. J. Townshend, garrison chaplain at Woolwich, England, visited Annapolis and preached in S. Luke's church, Annapolis on Sunday Aug. 28th.

A Dorchester letter of August 3rd. says: There was an interesting service held in Trinity church here yesterday afternoon, at which there were four generations present. At the service referred to, Charles Simmons Hickman, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Hickman, was baptized by Rev. J. Roy Campbell. Among those present were the infant, his father and mother, grandfather, William Hickman, grandmother, Mrs. Hickman, and Mrs. Simms' great grandmother, Mrs. Brown of Niagara, Ont.

The engagement of Miss Gilpin, daughter of Rev. Dean Gilpin, and Archdeacon Croucher, of Yale, British Columbia, is announced. Miss Gilpin left for British Columbia. Her two brothers have been residing there for some time. Archdeacon Croucher is a native of Nova Scotia.—Herald.

On Tuesday evening, Aug. 9, there was a gathering at the rectory, Woodstock, N. B., when Rev. W. B. Belliss, who has been curate for the past two years and is about to leave, was presented with two addresses, one from the corporation regretting his departure, and another from friends in the congregation. The latter was accompanied by a purse for Mr. Belliss, and a gift of half a dozen silver spoons for Mrs. Belliss.

Harry A. Ancient, the son of Rev. W. J. Ancient, the esteemed Diocesan Secretary-Treasurer of Nova Scotia, met with a sad and sudden death by drowning, while bathing, at Green Bank, Halifax. Deceased was highly esteemed and was just entering on a career of great promise. He graduated from King's College in June when he was appointed Assistant Master at the Collegiate School. We extend our sympathy to the deeply afflicted family.

The Kingston Deanery Sunday School Association met for mutual counsel and encouragement at Springfield on the 1st of September.

On Aug 14th. a class of 14 candidates was presented to the Bishop for Confirmation by the Rev. G. R. Martel, rector of Maitland, Hants Co.

A very successful picnic was recently held at Sandy Cove, Digby, on the grounds of Blair Dakin and $147. realized for Church work. Mr. Zwicker, of Mahone Bay is Lay Reader in charge of this mission during the summer.

ACETYLENE is the coming light. Any person wanting a brilliant, convenient and economical light, for church, store, or home, should write to J. A. Stansfield, Springfield Mines, N. S.

THE MISSIONARY REVIEW OF THE WORLD for September opens with a stirring discussion by the Editor-in-Chief on the "Great Exigency in the Work of Missions."

In this paper Dr Pearson points out clearly the financial crisis through which missionary societies are passing, and then proceeds to indicate the causes and the remedy. Dr. George William Knox, formerly of Japan, contributes an article on "Events of the Past Year in Japan," and Rev. M. L. Gordon of Kyoto presents a full and able discussion of the "Doshisha" and the attitude of the Japanese Christians toward the action of the Japanese Christians toward the action of the trustees.

Two interesting description of Medical Missions are furnished by Secretary Robert E. Speer, who tell of healing the sick in Persia and by Dr. C. C. Vinton, who treats of the same subject in regard to Korea. Other articles are on Christianity, and Canteens in the Camps," "Fire-worshippers in Japan," "A Call from Chinese Christians," and "Some Recent Events in China."

All the articles and notes are timely and readable.
