THE LARGE ONE HUNDRED AND THREE YOUNG STREET.

The rage for the gold of Australia is past And men gather wisdom and show it at last.

For now they believe what they've often been told.

That our own favored Canada is the country for Gold.

While here we are blessed with a generous soil, The man may have gold who is willing to toil, And vain were his search for a happier shore, While blessings so numerous encircle his door.

Strange indeed would it be, if a land like our own, Where our roses, though latest, are sweelest when blown

Though our winters are long, and sometimes severe, But lead us to summers delightfully clear. Should be less after tire, because of its cold, Then lands full of vices-though teening with gold

But prosperous as Canada always hath been, This year is the best that she ever hath seen, And now she is wreathing a laurel to wear, That nations may one day be anxious to share

Her prosperous condition will appear very plain, Where her farmers get a dollar and a quarter for grain White all their productions so readily sell, At prices which now pay them equally well.

To many, it doubtless may seem very queer, Why Dry Goods are cheap and Provisions so dear, It is true, notwithstanding, which our patrons may

By calling on Young Street " One Hundred and Three.

While many must know, an advance, very great, Has been made in the value of woollens of late, Yet our flauncis and bianners will quickly appear, Quite as low as the prices we offered last year.

Our Bunnets and Cloaks have been tastefully made. With a prospect of greatly increasing our trade, And our Shawls and our Furs will at once please the

And induce even the most fastidious to buy.
