INDIAN WORK.

From Miss Clarke.

CHILLIWHACK, B.C., August 14th, 1891.

I have delayed writing to you until this advanced stage of the quarter, partly owing to the fact that I expected a communication from you, but more because I have found it all but impossible to get a quiet moment in which to collect my thoughts, at a time when I was not too tired to do so.

The present summer has, in some respects, been the most trying period of my stay here. The vigilance necessary to properly guard those children leaves but little rest for the
