UNFAILING HOPEFULNESS.

I. SERMON,

BY REV. D. L. McCRAE, M.A., PH. D., COLLINGWOOD, ONT.

Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?
Hope thou in God for I shall yet praise him,
Who is the help of my countenance, and my God.—/s. 42-11.

THE Christian life, in this world, is of necessity an uneven life. It is a life of conflicts, of ups and downs, of trying experiences. It is a simple matter of fact, verified by all experience, that the best Christians are, at times, cast down and disquieted. And, indeed, as one has said, discouragement will
