

June 8th, Near Bear Head Lake.—Wind north but thawing slightly.

June 9th, North of Bear Head Lake.—Wind north east, thawing.

June 10th, Small Lakes north east of Bear Head Lake.—Wind north east but warm, water on all the lakes and the snow fast going.

June 11th, Blind Mans Lake (?)—Wind north east but a regular thaw, water running in all the hollows, and the snow in slush. Fog came up in evening.

June 12th, Sand Ridge.—Heavy fog in morning but cleared up about 9 a.m. Did not freeze much in night. Lakes forming in all the hollows.

June 13th, Sand Ridge.—Wind north east and raw, with now and again a few drops of rain. A slight fog towards evening arose but later on came very thick and storming. Most of the country is free from snow but large drifts still in the hollows.

June 14th, Sand Ridge.—Wind a little east of north, stormy and a very unpleasant day.

June 15th, Sand Ridge.—Wind north east. Rain, snow and sleet all day.

June 16th, Davids Lake.—Wind north east, storm continued to 10 a.m. then cleared up. Water and slush on portages.

June 17th, Davids Lake.—Wind north east, cloudy, milder.

June 18th.—Wind south, warm, a fine bright day.

June 19th.—Wind south and warm.

June 20th.—Wind north east but light and warm.

June 21st. — Wind north east, light and hot. Vegetation is pushing ahead rapidly, leaves starting on the small willows and flowering plants, in fact green grass showing with every sign of spring.

June 22nd.—Wind south and warm.

June 23rd.—Wind in morning, west and hot, but at midday heavy clouds came up with rain, wind veered round to north east.

June 24th.—Wind south.

June 25th, Lockharts River.—Wind south and fine. River open. Flowering plants are coming rapidly into bloom, and little or no snow to be seen.