LETTER FROM HON. JUDGE YOUNG, LL.D.

FAIRHOLM, P. E. I., Jan'y, 1887.

REV. AND DEAR EDITOR,—I propose (D. V.) to send you six Alphabetical Scripture References for each current month of the present year, being sixty-six in all; and answers thereto, with References, will be sent to me, as formerly, by my young friends of the "MONTHLY RECORD." I would suggest that the answers be written on one cent postal cards.

If spared, I will keep a correct list of the persons who may send answers, and will, at the end of the year, give a prize to the most deserving—limiting the number at my discretion.

Hoping and praying that your useful and well-conducted periodical may be still more successful and more widely circulated in the future than it has ever been in the past,

I remain yours, sincerely,
CHARLES YOUNG.

ALPHABETICAL SCRIPTURE REFERENCES FOR FEBRUARY, 1887.

- A was by the Israelites destroyed with fire and sword;
- B was a man whose sight was lost, but which the Lord restored.
- C was a faithful Israelite who took a giant's city;
- D was "full of alms deeds," and for the poor felt pity.
- E was taken to Heaven by a chariot and horses of fire;
- F thought that Paul was innocent, and his release was F's desire.

[We are delighted with these beautiful metrical lines of Reference. Let every family search out the Name of every Reference, and send it along with its Scripture Text or Proof to JUDGE YOUNG every month. A post-card will hold the six Names and their six Texts very easily, besides the name of the child or children who may send it. Do your best in this way every month; and it will not only do you an immense deal of good, in making you know the Bible well, but it will very likely bring you a PRIZE also, for JUDGE YOUNG is well known to do much more than he promises. Then we will publish all your names and Prizes in fine order at last. JUDGE YOUNG does not claim exclusive originality in these References, although they will be found peculiarly his own in their form and use.—[E.D.]
