Parish Notes.

“Summer suns are glowing,” and the holiday season has come round once more. Most of the Parochial organizations have wound up their affairs for the time being, and members of the congregation are already scattering. The Rector is going to begin his holiday at the end of July, when he goes to the Georgian Bay on a visit to the Rev. Street Macklem. During August the Parish will be in the charge of Mr. Rounthwaite and of the Rev. E. C. Cayley.

On June 12th, being the first Sunday after Trinity, the Rev. J. F. Rounthwaite entered upon his duties as Assistant Curate.

On Trinity Sunday, Miss Maud Cayley's Bible Class was closed and its members handed to the Rector the sum of $24.50. This money was subscribed during the five months the class has been held, and is to be devoted to the repairing the roof, and the “doing up” of the Clergy's vestry.

The Provost of Trinity College preached a sermon on behalf of Trinity University, in St. George's, on June 12th. This sermon was one of a series which is being given to collect funds and to awaken interest in our great Provincial Training School. Cards were distributed all over the Church on which people desiring to be subscribers could write their names. Although many members of St. George's have already been approached on this subject, several cards were filled in, and about $20 subscribed and more or less promised for five years.

The Chancel Guild desire to thank Mrs. Keating, Mrs. Burton and Miss Moore for gifts of flowers for the Church during the month of June.

On Monday evening, June 13th, the members of St. Agatha's Guild gave a social evening. The entertainment was provided for themselves by themselves, and nothing marred the joyousness of the occasion, but the rain which poured in torrents.

The Sunday School Festival is fixed for Saturday, July 2nd. The outing is to be held at
