It is reported that the British bark Salado, 432 tons, Capt. Anderson, sailed from Newport, Eng., Sept. 13, for this port.

The British bark The Frederick, 812 tons, Capt. Simpson, from Santos May 12, via Talcahuano, for Victoria, is daily expected by Robt. Ward & Co., Ltd, her charterers. She will load salmon for London.

The Americana, now on the berth at Liverpool for Victoria, is a new four-masted steel schooner of 1250 tons dead weight, and will carry about 1400 tons cargo. She has been especially built for these waters and will remain on the Pacific Coast, going into the coasting trade. Messrs. Turner, Beeton & Co., the consignees, will be her agents here.

THE INSURANCE FIELD.

The Maritime Grocer, published at Halifax, advises everyone who has anything valuable to make it secure with a policy of insurance. There is a combination of capitalists who for a pittance undertake to make provision for you and yours in case you are struck by fire or death. Even more than that, for the insurance companies are stretching themselves into almost all of human affairs. There are companies now which guarantee all titles to your house or other property. And we notice a new branch in one of the old insurance companies: for a yearly payment one's salary is guaranteed in case of the failure of the house or dismissal where there is no fault in the servant. Every human being should be a partner in these valuable concerns. It is a co-operative system of immense value to the individual and the community. It makes the rich our protectors in case of disaster. For a yearly payment, there are rich corporations which insure business concerns against the thefts of servants. Everywhere and every day there are extensions of this kind of business, and they are capital arrangements for the numerous ones who cannot afford to make losses. The effort is being made to insure the manufacturers and wholesale merchants against one's habits, his capital, business capacity, and everything else affecting his credit. One has got to walk very circumspectly or he will soon be tripped up, not by these companies, but by his own bad doings, brought to light by these companies.
