

Popular Works by Popular Writers

The Man From Glengarry

BY RALPH CONNOR.

Cloth, illustrated.
$1.25

Said to be superior to either "Black Rock" or "The Sky Pilot."

Ready in October.

D'ri and I

BY IRVING BACHELLER.

Paper, 75c.
Cloth, $1.25

A worthy successor to his marvellously popular work, "Eben Holden."

The Good Red Earth

BY EDEN PHILLPOTTS.

Paper, 75c.
Cloth, $1.25

"To read 'The Good Red Earth' after laying down some of the recent novels, is like a long breath of pure morning country air."
Montreal Sun.

Tarry Thou Till I Come

Or Salathiel,
The Wandering Jew.

BY GEORGE CROLY.

Paper, 75c.
Cloth, $1.50 net.
With 20 full-page drawings by
T. de Thulstrup.

"It leads the procession of historical novels at one bound."
N. Y. Mail and Express.
"One of the six greatest English novels ever written."
General Lew Wallace.

WILLIAM BRIGGS, Publisher, - - 29-33 Richmond Street West, Toronto

A FEW LEADERS

The Kidnapped Millionaires

By FREDERICK U. ADAMS

The Rocky Mountain News says:—"There is just one trouble with this story, it isn't true."
The Philadelphia Times says:—"To say that the story is exciting but feebly describes it."

The Montreal Star says:—

Heart and Soul

"Is a romance of extreme interest."

ZANGWILL'S MASTERPIECE

The Mantle of Elijah

"Every page is alive. Every person among the shifting crowd is real. It is a great book."
Victoria Times.

IT IS COMING SHORTLY

John Uri Lloyd's
Great Story

Warwick of the Knobs

All published in Cloth, $1.25; and in Paper, 75c.

W. J. GAGE & CO., Limited, TORONTO