DEAFNESS.

An essay describing a really genuine Cure for Deafness, Singing in the Ears, &c., no matter how severe or long-standing, will be sent post free. Artificial Ear-drums and similar appliances entirely superseded.

Address THOMAS KEMPE, Victoria Chambers, 19, Southampton Buildings, Holborn, London.

'People lift their eyebrows,' says William Morris, the English poet, 'over women mastering the higher mathematics. Why, it is indefinitely more difficult to learn the details of good housekeeping. Anybody can learn mathematics, but it takes a lot of skill to manage a house well.'

MY DAUGHTER'S CURE.

Mrs. George L. Hicks, 76 McGill street, Toronto, Ont., writes: "It is with pleasure that I testify to the wonderful merits of K. D. C. My daughter has suffered severely at intervals for the past two years and was steadily getting worse. She tried three of the best doctors in the city, but obtained no relief, also every remedy that friends would recommend with the same results and continued to grow worse all the time. She was recommended by a friend to try K. D. C. and sent for a sample package. Before taking all of the sample the symptoms of dyspepsia were gone, and though she has since taken only $1 package the symptoms have not returned. She has also gained considerably in weight, and her friends are surprised at the change in her appearance. If any person in Toronto suffering from the same disease would like to call on me, I could tell them more fully what K. D. C. has done for my daughter."

It is one thing to meet death intrepidly, and it is altogether another to meet it peacefully and trustfully. —Robertson.

Why We are Churchmen

SEVEN PLAIN REASONS.

By A. L. OLDHAM, M.A., Prebendary of Hereford, Rector of St. Leonard's, Bridgnorth, and Rural Dean.

We know of several works calculated to strengthen men in their Churchmanship to induce Dissenters, where not too narrow or too prejudiced, to become Church people. Amongst these might be mentioned at least two such works published in America, which, we fancy, must be having great influence for good in adding many to the Church of America, and their system of Sunday-school teaching cannot fail to do great things for the coming generation. We must, however, place the work by Mr. Oldham amongst the very best of the many works on this subject that have been put before us. It is a convincing book, and done in a straightforward, manly, Christian spirit. We greatly desire that thoughtful, religious Dissenters would study it, and would try, as they read it, to answer it. We wish that the truth only may prevail, and are sure that it will not prevail through the Church being other than Christ intended it, one in spirit and heart and actual exhibition before the world. The few quotations contained in it are of a powerful character, and are of themselves deserving of much thought. We can hardly understand a conscientious man or woman amongst Dissenting communities who will honestly consider this work and not seek, after prayer and thought, the unity of the Anglican communion. As the price is 2s. 6d. we suggest that it might be given as a prize in many of our schools. In no kindness of feeling, however, we especially and very strongly advise thoughtful men and women amongst Dissenters to study it well. London, K. & N. G. & Co., 1894. Price 2s. 6d.
