Mercantile Summary.

AT a meeting of the Victoria, B.C., City Council, on Wednesday, the aldermen defeated a by-law prohibiting Sunday trade.

AN association has just been formed by the retail merchants and traders of New Westminster, B.C., for their mutual benefit and protection. It is to be called The Merchants' Association of New Westminster.

ACTIVITY continues at Sydney Mines, Cape Breton. In early May, it is said, the General Mining Association will let contracts for some twenty dwelling-houses, and will during the season increase considerably the number of its hands. The largest shipment of coal ever made from the "Old Mine" is expected this summer.

THE town council of Cobourg awarded their $144,000 debentures to Messrs. G.
W. Wood & Son, Toronto, whose tender was the highest for the whole block, although not as high as one offer made for about a third of the issue. The sale is a good one for the town, which gets a handsome premium for its bonds.
These carry four per cent. interest, and mature from 1915 to 1934.

HERE is a rather awkward-looking paragraph from the Wallaceburg News of last week: "Many persons are asking after the welfare of our Board of Trade.
Some suggest offering a reward to the person that can produce them either dead or alive. The last meeting we know of was when $43 was handed over to the treasurer, and no meeting been held since.
The question now is where are the members, where is the Board of Trade, and where is the money?"

AMONG the companies chartered in Ontario is Greville & Company, Limited, composed of Charles Greville-Harston and Mrs. Harston, George Dunstan and Mrs. Dunstan, and A. D. Benjamin, of Toronto. Their business: "To purchase, own and sell mining stocks, bonds and options, and to conduct a general brokerage business." F. G. Anderson, D. D.
Grierson, John Kyles, George A. Perran and J. A. Meldrum propose to make and sell fire extinguishers, etc., under the name of the Stempel Manufacturing Company, of Toronto, Limited; capital, $24,000. The Oakville Navigation Company, Limited; capital, $40,000; headquarters, Oakville, propose to do a steamboat business and to establish a summer hotel and pleasure resort and hotel, at or near Oakville.
