

by the students of Sydney Academy, Cape Breton, has reached the first number of the fourth volume. Its eight pages are mostly taken up with correspondence and an original poem of considerable merit. It would be well for some other academies to follow the good example of the Sydney boys, to stimulate original composition and to create a pride in their own intuitions by having their own paper. . . . Grip offers prizes of $30, $20 and $10 for the best short, humorous article, story, poem, narrative or character sketch sent in before March 1, 1892. The prizes will be awarded not so much on literary merit, as upon the humor and aptness of the concept. Professional writers being debarred, there is a fair field for all of a literary turn. Here is a chance for young writers to test their abilities. See announcement in Grip. . . . Littell's Living Age begins with Jan. 2nd its one hundred and ninety-second volume. This standard weekly magazine grows more essential every year to readers who wish to keep abreast with the best current work in literature and science. For fifty-two numbers of sixty-four pages each (or more than 3,300 pages a year) the subscription price ($8) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies with The Living Age for a year both postpaid. Littell & Co., Boston are the publishers. . . . The Popular Science

Monthly (New York) for January has several excellent articles tempting to the student, such as "Communication with the Planets," "Our Population and its Distribution," "An experiment in Education," "The Population of the Earth," "Sketch of Elias Loomis," and others. . . . Canada for January, has a most interesting table of contents, and is ahead of any previous number; published by M. R. Knight, Benton, N. B. . . . The Atlantic Monthly (Boston) for January has a rich and varied table of contents, among which are "James Russell Lowell," by Henry James, "Birds and 'Birds,'" by Edith M. Thomas, "John Stewart Mill and the London and Westminster Review," "The greatest need of College Girls," by Annie Payson Call, "The Political Situation," "English Composition" and others. . . . The Christmas number of The Argosy, Mt Allison, Sackville, was bright and appropriate to the season. It contained portraits and sketches of Hon. Justice Burbidge, Prof. Mack, of the Conservatory of music, and Dr. Burwash. . . . The first number of School and College, published by Ginn & Co., Boston, has been issued. It is devoted to secondary and higher education, and is edited by Ray Greene Huhling. It gives promise of an excellent and useful career. . . . Thanks to that excellent journal L'Enseignement Primaire, Quebec, for New Year's greetings, which are heartily returned

PHYSICAL DRILL, FOR USE IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

In four parts. With Illustrations systematized and arranged in eight grades to suit all classes, by SERGT.-MAJOR D. BAILEY, Military Gymnastic Instructor, with a preface by ALEX. MCKAY, Supervisor of Halifax Schools.

PRICE 50 CENTS.

Dr. John Stewart, of Pictou, who has a thorough scientific knowledge of the benefits of physical development, and who has done so much to encourage manly sports in the Maritime Provinces, writes about Sergt.-Major Bailey's book as follows:—"As to the general plan of the book, and the way this has been carried out, I am very much pleased. I have compared the book with other manuals of physical drill, and in my judgment it is superior in simplicity of directions and in variety of exercises. I am glad to see the dumb-bell made so much of."
