FOREWORD

32632823
43225815

This document, prepared by a team in the office of the Adviser on Bilingualism, is a compilation of the administrative and diplomatic vocabulary used in departmental manuals and other publications issued by responsible organizations. Its purpose is to facilitate the use in all departmental writing of a vocabulary that is consistent and therefore less subject to misinterpretation.

This booklet should be kept where it is readily available to all employees.
