

workers, consisting of three people for a period of seven days to participate in a Canadian film week in the USSR;

1988

- a) The Soviet side will send and the Canadian side will receive films and delegations of cinematographic workers, each consisting of two people for a period of ten days to participate in Soviet film festivals which will be held with the assistance of the "Canada-USSR Association", the "Quebec-USSR Society" and national films distribution companies;

- b) The Soviet side will receive and the Canadian side will send films and a delegation of cinematographic workers consisting of three people for a period of seven days to participate in a Canadian film week in the USSR.

Terms of such arrangements will be agreed upon directly between competent Soviet and Canadian organizations.

3. Both sides will promote the participation of Soviet films and delegations in international film