

4. The notification referred to in paragraph 3 shall include:

- (a) the identity of the customs administration issuing the notification and, where the circumstances referred to under paragraph 2 exist, the identity of the customs administration on whose behalf the notification is being sent;
- (b) the name of the exporter or producer whose premises are to be visited;
- (c) the date and place of the proposed verification visit;
- (d) the object and scope of the proposed verification visit, including specific reference to the good that is the subject of the verification;
- (e) the names and titles of the officials performing the verification visit; and
- (f) the legal authority for the verification visit.

5. Where an origin verification referred to under paragraph 1 is to be conducted by the customs administration of the Party into whose territory a good was imported, the customs administration of that Party shall:

- (a) in the case of a written questionnaire, deliver a copy of the questionnaire; or
- (b) in the case of a verification visit, not less than 30 days prior to conducting the visit, deliver a copy of the written notification referred to paragraph 3, to the customs administration of the Party from whose territory the good was exported.

6. Where an exporter or producer does not respond to a written questionnaire or does not give its written consent to a proposed verification visit within 30 days of delivery to the exporter or producer of the questionnaire or of the notification referred to in paragraph 3, as the case may be, or fails to provide sufficient information in response to a questionnaire or denies access to the records referred to in Article 5.5 during the conduct of a visit, the Party into whose territory the good was imported may deny preferential tariff treatment to the good that was the subject of the origin verification.

7. Each Party shall provide that, where its customs administration receives notification, pursuant to paragraph 5, from the customs administration of the other Party or is contacted to conduct a verification visit on behalf of that other Party, pursuant to Annex 5.6.2(1), it may, within 15 days of receipt of the notification or from the date of contact, as the case may be, postpone the proposed verification visit for a period not exceeding 60 days from the date of such receipt or contact, or for such longer period as the Parties may agree.
