

10. The aeronautical authorities of either Contracting Party may request discussions on prices at any time. Such discussions, which may be conducted orally or in writing, shall be held within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the request, unless otherwise agreed between the aeronautical authorities.

11. When prices have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article, those prices shall remain in force until new prices have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article. Nevertheless, a price shall not be prolonged by virtue of this paragraph for more than twelve (12) months after the date on which it would otherwise have expired.

12. Each Contracting Party may require the filing with its aeronautical authorities by the designated airline or airlines of their general terms and conditions of carriage in accordance with its national laws and regulations. Acceptance or approval of such terms and conditions shall be subject to national laws and regulations. The aeronautical authorities of either Contracting Party may at any time withdraw such acceptance or approval upon not less than fifteen (15) days notice to the designated airlines concerned and the term or condition shall cease to have any force or effect thereafter.
