

because of the inadequacy of the resolution in this respect, that we had no alternative in the circumstances but to abstain in the voting.

I hope that our inability to deal with those essential matters at this time will very soon be removed and that we can come to grips with the basic core of this problem.

---

s/c