

Rhodes, Hon. E. N.—Con.Budget—Con.

national both in its causes and its effects; the world economic and monetary conference to be held in London, 3205, 3205; world conditions reflected in business conditions in this country; moderate improvement in wheat prices since the first of the year; maintenance of Canada's position as fifth amongst the trading nations of the world; statement of Canada's foreign trade for the first eleven months of this fiscal year as compared with the same period in 1931-32; progressive improvement in the balance of trade; significant developments in our trade with empire countries, 3206; inter-empire trade of Canada; trend towards increased trade with empire countries; increase in imports from and exports to Australia and the West Indies; financial conditions in Canada; continuation of prohibition of export of gold from Canada; effect of increased gold production in maintenance of national credit; meeting our external debts and interest payments abroad, 3207; difficulties and dangers involved in inflation; improvement of Canadian dollar in exchange market and success in securing long-term capital issues; decline in public revenues and increase in debt charges; problem of interest charges before the banking and commerce committee of the house; movement on the part of banks and other financial institutions to reduce the interest rate on savings bank deposits, 3208; contribution of the chartered banks to the orderly financing of our economic life; extension of existing bank charters until July 1, 1934; appointment of a royal commission to study the organization and working of our entire banking and monetary system; continuation of our financial structure intact and maintenance of our credit unimpaired in the markets of the world; taxation revenues for 1932-1933; estimated revenue from income tax, the customs tariff and sales taxes; 3209; comparative statement of the estimated receipts from taxes for the present fiscal year and for the previous four years; estimated revenues from various public services; five year

Rhodes, Hon. E. N.—Con.Budget—Con.

comparison of non-tax revenues, 3210; receipts from sale of radio licences; special receipts; comparison of revenues for the last five fiscal years; saving in ordinary expenditures for 1932-1933; statement by departments of expenditure for the last five years, 3211; premium, discount and exchange, 3212; comparison of capital expenditure for the last five years; special expenditures on wheat bonus and unemployment relief; comparative statement showing special expenditures during the last five fiscal years, 3213; loans by the Dominion government to provinces under the authority of the Relief Act and for other purposes; non-active loans to Canadian National (West Indies) Steamships and Canadian Government Merchant Marine, 3214; loans to the Quebec harbour commission, the Montreal harbour commission, and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company; statement of non-active loans and advances; comparative summary of expenditures for five-year period; the Canadian National Railways, 3215; comparative statement showing financial requirements of the national railway system for 1932 as compared with actual requirements in 1931; recommendations of the transportation commission as to railway deficits, 3216; statement of advances to harbour commissions for the last five years; Canadian Farm Loan Board operations, 3217; net result of the dominion's accounts for the year; a deficit of $53,608,000 on ordinary account due to failure of revenues to attain the expected yield because of falling prices and shrinkage in business activity; increase of debt on government operations for the past year as compared with the previous year; total addition to the debt after taking into consideration the year's operations for government and the railways of $156,122,000; loan flotations; meeting maturing obligations in New York; sale of treasury notes to the chartered banks; over-subscription of three-year and twenty-year bond issues in October, 3218; success of four per cent loan of 1932; statement of direct