

Income Tax Act

which a short while ago it provided money to develop. I think if we look at our economy in terms of the amendment we will come to the conclusion that we should accept the amendment, look at the economy again and then take steps to do something to improve it.

At six o'clock the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.

---