

arbitrarily, but whether I shall be the lucky one or not, I can't tell.

I was glad to hear that Paul Tudor got such a reception at Ottawa, I miss him a lot here, but always feel some pride in the fact that he was one of my subalterns, as was Page, both who did well.

Again with many thanks and kindest regards to Lady Curie & yourself

yours sincerely

J. S. Pragnell

