

For years he lived right with it - He feared no man - He truckled to no Party or Interest - He was British and heved to the line - He feared God, honoured the King, and stood, aloof in a weary land -

That book is on the Index - It is out of print - I have a copy which I will be glad to lend you - ~~if~~ if you prefer - I saw a copy a few days ago in Canadiana section, second hand book shop (of which there are three) on Bleury - west side - between St Catherine and Craig - price $1.<sup>00</sup>

Sir, I appreciate your position - You may not care to acknowledge this letter - That will give me no offense whatever but - I hope that you will accept my assurance that the matter will be in strict Confidence

I remain Sir
respectfully
James J. Taylor,

1628. Sherbrooke, W.
Montreal