

- Dominion
 ; resigns,
 er of Jus-
 6 ; resigns
 pposition,
 ote, 426 ;
 ader and ances into nac, 168 ;
 of U. C..
 240 ; feud
 s Premier,
 ederation,
 ounded by ga, 260.
 9, i. 140.
 ence, i. 2.
 r. 1699, i.
 98.
 ad state in
 on during ate of the
 on, ii. 48 ;
 294 ; the
 ario, 436 ;
 rench civil
 his recall,
 es the first
 d resigns,
 374 ; his
 , 382.
 er, i. 443.
 becomes Landry's
 th U. S., ain Drew,
 nt, 201..
 ; attacks
 ; at Lako
 Charlottetown, confederation conference at, ii. 279.
 Chesapeake captured by Captain Broke in the Shannon, i. 372.
 Chauvin sails for Todousac, his death, i. 9.
 Chauncey, Commodore, on Lake Ontario, i. 394.
 Christie, Robert, author of the History of Lower Canada, expelled from the Assembly, ii. 25.
 Chateauguay, Americans defeated at, by De Salaberry, i. 366.
 Charlevoix visits Canada, i. 106.
 Chippewa, Battle of, British defeated, i. 386.
 Chrysler's Farm, Battle of, Americans defeated, i. 365.
 Clear Grit Party, its name, ii. 218 ; and its origin, 224.
 Clergy Reserves, first agitation against, i. 427 ; finally secularised, ii. 234.
 Colborne, Sir John, appointed Lieut.-Gov. of U. C., ii. 1 ; falls into the hands of the Family Compact, 2 ; his recall, 19 ; is appointed commander-in-chief, 64 ; victory at St. Eustache, 72 ; becomes Lieut.-Gov. of L. C., 83 ; suppresses the second rising, 87 ; becomes Gov.-Gen., 99 ; returns to England and is raised to the peerage, 100.
 Collins, Francis, persecuted by the Family Compact, tried for libel and sent to prison, i. 465.
 Confederation, conference at Charlottetown, ii. 279 ; at Quebec, 280 ; completed, 294.
 Conquest of Canada, final, 1760, i. 205.
 Constitution of Canada in 1791, i. 270.
 Corn Laws, repeal of in England, great depression in Canada, ii. 197.
 Courcelles, de, becomes Gov. in 1665, i. 52 ; he resigns, 57.
 Craig, Sir James, becomes Gov. in 1807, i. 286 ; his arbitrary conduct, 290 ;
 his death, 292.
 Crown Point occupied by Amherst, i. 179.
 Crozier prepares to suppress the Riel rising, ii. 448 ; is defeated at Duck Lake, 451.
 Dalzell, Major, killed at Detroit, i. 234.
 Dalhousie, Earl of, becomes Gov.-Gen. in 1820, i. 412 ; difficulties with the Assembly, 420 ; refuses to confirm Papineau as Speaker, is recalled, 423.
 Daulac saves Canada, i. 41 ; his glorious death, 42.
 De Boucherville dismissed by Letellier, ii. 401 ; again becomes premier, 512.
 Dearborn, General, threatens Montreal and retreats, i. 343.
 Deerfield, Massacre of, by Hertel de Rouville, i. 99.
 Denonville, M. de, becomes Gov. in 1684, i. 73 ; his treachery, 76 ; marches against the Senecas, 77 ; his disgrace and recall, 81.
 Detroit founded by De. Callieres in 1701, i. 98.
 Dieskau, Baron, defeated by Sir Wm. Johnson, i. 146.
 Donnacona's first meeting with Cartier, i. 4.
 Dongan, Colonel, desires to keep fur trade at New York, i. 70 ; his policy, 78.
 Dominion of Canada, statistical, social and political, ii. 296 ; British North America Act, 211.
 Dorchester, Lord, appointed Gov.-Gen., i. 269.
 Double majority principle accepted by Robert Baldwin, ii. 223 ; its origin, 195-247 ; abandonment, 249.
 Double Shuffle by the Cartier Cabinet, ii. 253.
 Draper becomes Cabinet Minister, ii. 191 ; his administration, 194-200 ;
 appointed a judge, 204.
 Drummond, General, commands at Battle of Lundy's Lane, i. 388 ; besieges Fort Erie, 391 ; Gov. of L. C., 399 ; censures Assembly, 401.
 Dumont, Gabriel, becomes Riel's adjutant-general, ii. 449 ; stops McKay's advance to Duck Lake, 450 ; defeats Crozier, 457 ; defeats Middleton at Fish Creek, 461, defeat at Batoche and flight, 468.
 Duquesne, Marquis, becomes Gov. in 1752, i. 131 ; establishes forts in the Ohio country, 133 ; resigns, 137.
 Dunn, Thomas, takes charge of gov. of L. C., i. 283 ; press prosecutions, 284 ;
 very popular, 286.