WINTER FAIR IS WELL UNDER WAY

Considerable Increase in Prize Money Offered Over Former Years.

Preparations are well under way for the holding of the thirtieth annual Ontario provincial winter fair to be held in Guelph Dec. 9 to 12. The pre-mium list, which is now to hand, shows a very attractive classification and a considerable increase in the amount of prize money offered over former vegirs.

Several extra sections have been added in the dairy cattle section the prizes have been increased in several prizes have been increased in several sections. In the swine department last year a class was provided for "any other breed, grade or cross". This year the classes are provided one for "any other pure bred" and one for "grades or crosses of any breed." In the poultry department several classes have been added, and the prizes for ducks are to be increased according to the number of entries, as is now the case in the entries, as is now the case in the classes for fowls. Quite a number of county councils re offering special prizes for amateur exhibitors from their counties, every section of the premium list being sup-plemented by one or more of these county specials. A copy of the list may be obtained upon application to the secretary, R. W. Wade, parlia-ment buildings, Toronto.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS FOR NEXT MEETINGS

Miss McNab's Series Are So Popular That More Chairs Soon Will Be Needed.

Miss McNab's series of social service and missionary lawn meetings have already become quite popular, and it is expected that more accommodation will be necessary for next Saturday and Sunday at Dundurn Heights. Four hundred chairs were secured by Miss McNab from the city, at her own expense, and were carted from the grand stand at the Exhibition to Dundurn Heights, St. Clair avenue.

A students' meeting will be held on Saturday afternoon, when the Rev. Prof. Griffiths-Thomas of Wycliffe College will speak at 3 o'clock. At half-past two Miss Clara Bell Pratt, a returned missionary from Turkey, will give an address. Rev. John McNichol will be chairman.

On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Owen Hitchcock will be the speaker, and the chair will be taken by Dr. Margaret

James L. Stewart, another resident, expressed acute dissatisfaction with the knocking that was going on. "It's quite evident," he said, "that the public ownership is not popular with a certain section of the council. What the revenue from the cars amounts to the revenue from the cars amounts to at the present time is not, in my opinion, a serious matter, as there is already a decided movement in this direction from the city.
