

Toronto Leafs Go Up Into First Division

HOME RUN IN EACH GAME BY TIM AND LEAFS WALLOP ROYALS TWICE

Hebert Saves First Game and Zeiser, the New Twirler, Has Montreal Baffled Thruout the Second — Great Crowd See Saturday's Double-Header at the Island Stadium.

By winning both games of the double-header on Saturday from Montreal, the Leafs have moved up into the first division again, from which position they were displaced last week. They also showed a marked superiority over the lowly Royals, whose weakness in hitting ability was very apparent in both games. In consequence Toronto's pitchers exhibited unusual strength, and in both contests had the Montrealers completely helpless. Ritter started for Toronto and for four innings kept the Royals scoreless, allowing but two safe hits. In the fifth he suddenly lost control and the bases filled and three balls and a strike on the next batter resulted in one lucky hit.

In the meantime Dowd, the Royals' pitcher, was in continual trouble. He got thru the first three innings without a score, but in the fourth he was hit across two on a pass, a bunt that Wilson beat out and two singles by Kelly and Kroy. Dowd then pitched the Royals against the wind into the right bleachers counted two more in the sixth, and the final run was tallied in the next on Kroy's single and Zeiser's one-base out.

In the second game it was Toronto's speed on the bases that really won. The Leafs' second batter made it look easy.
