POOR OFFERINGS DEPRESS MARKET

Downward Tendency Drove Prices to Very Low Level Yesterday.

DEMAND FALLS OFF

Numerous Visitors Helped Out Trade in Stockers and Feeders.

The receipts at the Union Stock Yards on Thursday numbered 94 cars, including 309 cattle, 42 calves, 669 hogs, 948 sheep, 1210 horses for the allied armies.

This week's market has had too many poor quality cattle; half-finished animals have been in the majority. A downward tendency developed early, finally going from 25c to 50c per cwt. lower than last Thursday's quotations. The best butchers now bring $7.50 to $7.75. A few extra choice steers sold at $8.15 and $8.30. These would have brought $8.50 to $8.65 ten days ago. Bulls, with a light run, were more active. Cows are firm.

Stockers and feeders: This market did a little more trade on Thursday, among the numerous visitors, but the local demand is dull except for choice feeding cattle, 800 to 900 lbs., these going from $6.90 to $7.20 in small lots. Common classes are not in demand. American buyers are now shipping on order the best stockers and feeders.

Milkers and springers: The high level of this class was maintained to the close. Buyers and orders are in from many points for United States and Canada and the local trade is strong. Arthur Tardif, Quebec City, paid a visit to this division after a long absence, looking for cows. He took back one of the best loads of Holsteins and Durhams sent out in some time at from $75 to $125. The latter price was paid for one of the finest grade Holstein milkers sold on this market, weight 1600 lbs.; milking 34 quarts per day she had twin calves, but was sold alone.

Sheep, lambs and calves: A demand has been created for feeding lambs and feeding and breeding ewes. C. Zeagman & Sons sold two decks of feeding lambs at $7.75. The lambs on Thursday sold from $7.75 to $8.35, which is a good 50c lower than last week's close. Light sheep are quoted at $5.75 to $6.50. Calves are steady at Wednesday's prices, $10.50 for choice veal.

Hogs strong and unchanged.

WAR STOCKS BUOYANT IN MONTREAL MARKET

Scotia Bridge and Iron Were Particularly Strong Features.

MONTREAL, Sept. 9.—There was a broader and somewhat more active market for the war stocks here today, with Scotia, Bridge and Iron receiving most attention. Scotia was the strong feature of the group, rising to 86½, or 3¼ above last previous sale in the local market. All but ⅛ of the gain was retained in the final dealings. Iron was also on the strong side, selling at 44, against 43 at the close on Wednesday, and finishing ⅛ up on the day. Bridge was firm at its 2-point advance, to 145, but eased off ½ in the late trading. Steel of Canada was quiet, but closed ½ up at 33½, while the preferred rose ½. Car was unchanged at 105 in dealings of 300 shares. Canadian Locomotive rose ¾ to 51.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Shrinking money supplies hardened discount rates today despite the good bank statements. Cable transfers were irregular. At the start the market was all sellers, and the opening quotation was 4 65. Later the price advanced to 4.67, and then declined a fraction. No reason was given for the erratic movements.

The Russian victory had a good effect on the stock exchange, but there was no increase in business, which again was confined principally to the war loan, home rails, Kaffirs, oil shares and a few American bonds. American securities were quiet and steady, with U. S. Steel receiving the most attention.

WINNIPEG WHEAT MARKET.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 9.—A change for the better in the weather caused a lower wheat market here today. Wheat opened 1¼c to 1¾c down and after some trading prices rallied slightly. Oats opened ⅛c lower, but strengthened later. Flax was ½c lower at the opening and was weak the rest of the session.

Exporters bought freely of futures. Cash in good demand. Oats in fair enquiry. Barley and flax steady.

Inspections 361 cars, against 1455 last year. In sight 725 cars.

Wheat futures closed ⅛c to ⅜c higher. Cash wheat closed 1c higher, oats ¼c higher, flax ½c to ¾c lower, barley ¾c to 1c higher.

MONTREAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, Sept. 9.—The active foreign demand for Manitoba spring wheat prevalent yesterday was not reported in grain circles today. There was a fair amount of inquiry, but the prices bid were about the same as yesterday. With the increase in futures these prices were not workable. The local market was devoid of any new features. Oats were little demanded and the prices continue easy. The hay market was unchanged.

Produce prices continue firm in tone, while the export business done was on the light side. Butter dealers say they could do a fairly active business were it not for the scarcity of freights. There were no advances recorded in any lines.

LABOR DAY PRIZES.

Those contestants at last Monday's Labor Day games of the International Unions, who won races at the Exhibition, were yesterday given their prizes by the Labor Day committee at the Labor Temple. The final meeting of the Labor day committee will be held in the Temple next Monday night, to wind up all business in connection with the holiday.
