

CHAPTER XVI.

MISSIONARY LABOURS.

Dr. Burns a Missionary at large—Quebec and Vicinity—Rev. W. B. Clark—Laval University—Montreal the "New York of the North"—London—Immaculate Conception—Edgar's Variations of Popery—Huron College—Bishop Hellmuth—Orillia—Couchiching Lake—Preaching to Indians—Mr. Brooking—Kincardine—Highland Sacrament—Speaking to the Question—Artemesia—Ottawa—Népean—Glengarry in 1848—Rev. D. Clark—Rev. D. Gordon—Glengarry in 1854, 1858, and 1865—Immense Audiences—Elms in the Wilderness—"The days of Cambuslang are back again"—Owen Sound District—Rev. James Cameron—Triumphal Marches and Episcopal Visitations—the Runaway at the Rocky Sangeen—Hairbreadth Escape—Stage upset—Almost shot for a Bear—Snow on the Coverlet—the Snowed-up Train—the Wayside Shanty—John Gunn's (of Beaverton) Reminiscences—William's fatal illness—Rev. Wm. Burns' Statement—Red River Mission, its Rise and Progress—In Search of a Missionary—Rev. John Black goes—Alexander Ross—Dr. Burns contemplates a Visit—Sir George Simpson—the Buxton Mission—Rev. Wm. King's Statement—Visit to United States and Great Britain with Mr. King—Across the Alleghany Mountains by Stage—the Pro-Slavery Doctor—Visits to Buxton—the Freed Woman Lydia and her Household baptized by Dr. Burns—Gould street Church, Toronto—Georgetown—Nova Scotia—Prince Edward's Island—Newfoundland—Letters of Lady Bannerman—Visits to Chicago, Elmira, and Monmouthpage 259.

CHAPTER XVII.

MISSIONARY SKETCHES.

Day-book Jottings—A Canadian Paisley—Dundas—Galt—Debate between Dr. Liddell and Dr. Bayne—Flamborough—Rev. Thomas Christie—Hon. Adam Ferguson—London—Communion in 1845—Mr. John Fraser—Kingston—Rideau Canal—Mr. John Redpath—Bytown—Beckwith and Ramsay—Lanark—Perth—Dalhousie—Dr. Boyd, of Prescott—Côté street Church, Montreal—Pointe aux Trembles—to Glengarry with James R. Orr—St. Eustache—Ste. Thérèse—Jesuit College—From Montreal to Boston with Mr. Court—Intercourse with the Hon. Abbot Lawrence—Prince Edward Island—Bermuda—Morrison and Struthers—Cape Breton—Earlton—Truro—Opening of Chalmers' Church, Halifax—College at Halifax—Dr. Wilkes—St. John, New Brunswick—Portland—Dr. Payson—Boston—Quebec—Origin of our church there