

OPINIONS OF
THE GREAT NOVEL,
Mr. Barnes of New York.

ENGLAND.

"There is no reason for surprise at 'Mr. Barnes' being a big hit."—The Referee, London, March 25th.

"Exciting and interesting."—The Graphic.

"'Marina Paoli'—a giant character—just as strong as 'Fedora.'"—Illustrated London News.

"A capital story—most people have read it—I recommend it to all the others."

—JAMES PAYNE in Illustrated London News.

AMERICA.

"Told with the genius of Alexander Dumas, the Elder."—Amusement Gazette.

"Have you read 'MR. BARNES OF NEW YORK?' If no, go and read it at once, and thank me for suggesting it. . . . I want to be put on record as saying 'it is the best story of the day—the best I have read in ten years.'"—JOE HOWARD in Boston Globe.

But at that time Mr. Howard had not read

"Mr. Potter of Texas."
