

CONTENTS.

---

|                                                                                                                                                               | Page. |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| LECTURE I.                                                                                                                                                    |       |
| Close connection of Egypt with Sacred History. Geography of Egypt. Vast antiquity and grand associations. Origin of the Egyptians. The race not Negro . . . . | 1     |
| LECTURE II.                                                                                                                                                   |       |
| History of Egypt. Necessity of revising our popular Chronology. Roll of Egyptian Monarchs . . . .                                                             | 13    |
| LECTURE III.                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| Monuments of Egypt—Memphis—The Pyramids—The Sphinx—City of On—Denderah—Thebes—Luxor—Karnac . . . . .                                                          | 20    |
| LECTURE IV.                                                                                                                                                   |       |
| Hieroglyphics. Key to their interpretation. High civilization of the Ancient Egyptians. Their arts and discoveries . . . . .                                  | 34    |
| LECTURE V.                                                                                                                                                    |       |
| Egypt in the time of Abraham. The Patriarch's Emigration. Striking corroborations of Scripture . . . .                                                        | 43    |
| LECTURE VI.                                                                                                                                                   |       |
| Joseph in Egypt. Egyptian customs, embalming, tomb-paintings, monuments, as confirmatory of the Bible . .                                                     | 52    |
| LECTURE VII.                                                                                                                                                  |       |
| Israel in Egypt. Tomb-picture of the Israelites making bricks. Illustrations of their bondage . . . . .                                                       | 63    |