ROWELL PARTY WERE HECKLED AT PORCUPINE

"Abolish the Bar" Appealed to Miners as Excellent Material for Witticisms Which Flew Fast About the Ears of Speakers—Miners Were Visited.

TESTS ABOUT "BLIND PIGS"

SOUTH PORCUPINE, Aug. 2.—(Special.)—The touring Liberal party began today's proceedings by a visit to Timmins and an inspection of the Hellingier plant and mines. Many of the members of the party, including Mr. Rowell, went down into the mine. In the afternoon, the Dome mine was visited, and the party witnessed a baseball game at Porcupine. Mr. Rowell started the game by pitching a ball. Addresses of welcome from the council and board of trade were presented. The party returned to South Porcupine this evening. There a meeting was held in the Hotel Connaught.

Arthur W. Rowell, the first speaker, said that nothing has meant so much to New Ontario as this trip of Mr. Rowell and his party. "We are now able to send 106 missionaries to old Ontario," said Mr. Rowell. "To tell the story of New Ontario and what it means. We are also sending our able leader, Mr. Rowell, primed with the spirit of New Ontario. We intend to force the Whitney Government to do something adequate for this great region. The five million appropriation is not sufficient. We have them on the run, and intend to keep them going."

When Enthusiasm Waned.
Mr. Rowell said that Mr. Rowell was the first temperance politician who had the courage to get out and say what he thought. Only a handful of the assembly applauded. Mr. Rowell protested against the discrimination of the government in not allowing licenses, and said that the bar was abolished all sections of Ontario would be put on an equality.

C. A. Foster of Haliburton began telling of the "blind pigs." A voice in the crowd yelled "Come and have a drink!" another voice enquired: "What have you on your hip?" The crowd took the subject of "blind pigs" very seriously, and seemed altogether familiar with them.

Mr. Proudfoot wanted to know whether it was proper for an hotel in which a member of the legislature was interested, to sell liquor. "I have been threatened with thrashing and even murder for saying this," said Mr. Proudfoot.

When Mr. Proudfoot explained that if Mr. Rowell were in power, no liquor could be illegally sold, there were cries of "That's what they all say," "the can't do it," and similar expressions of incredulity. Mr. Proudfoot hastened to change the subject.

Victims of Witticisms.
When J. W. Marshall, M.L.A. for Monck, the next speaker, mentioned the liquor question someone in the audience asked him if he had "an eye opener." Mr. Marshall replied "not in a blind pig yet." He, too, hastened to change the subject.

There were many miners in the audience. They displayed great hilarity over the "abolish-the-bar" proposition and frequently the speakers were nonplussed by their comments.

Later, when Mr. Marshall returned to the liquor question and said "Abolish the bar," a loud voice among his auditors yelled "Polish the bar is right."

Mr. Rowell devoted the greater part of his speech to the needs of New Ontario and skimped over the liquor question. The native audience was obviously not in sympathy with the proposal to abolish the bar.

Mr. Rowell eloquently portrayed the astonishing development of this region. He said that the settlers felt that they had not received the sympathetic consideration and assistance from the government that they felt they were entitled to. It was the Liberals, Mr. Rowell said, who fought for and obtained the title of Ontario to New Ontario.

HOUSE CRASHES DOWN KILLING MAN BENEATH

Owner Jolted Out of Bed Upstairs at 20 Salem Ave., and Finds John Dunn, a Lone Worker, Dead Beneath Fallen Beams—Hoisting Jacks Slipped.

When the two storey house, 20 Salem ave., under which he was working, slid from its underpinning last yesterday afternoon, John Dunn was crushed under the building and died instantly. Dunn was a man of about thirty years of age, and lived at 206 1/2 Van Horne-st. The house was owned by Thomas Boston and had recently been moved from the adjoining lot to its present position. It was of frame construction and was supported on heavy beams. Dunn was employed in jacking up the building so that a cellar could be dug. Just at 5.15 p.m., the north side, under which Dunn was working, collapsed into a three foot excavation, burying him under the weight of the structure. When the accident occurred, the owner of the house was asleep in one of the upstairs rooms. He was jolted out of bed and ran down to the street. A fire call was rung and a score of people rushed to try to rescue Dunn from beneath the house. It was almost two hours later, however, before the body was recovered, as it was found necessary to tunnel in from the north side under the beams on which the house had rested. The body was taken to the city morgue after it had been viewed by Dr. Poyntz.

PORCUPINE IS NO LONGER PARADISE OF BOOMSTERS

Residents Relieve Monotony of Existence by Nursing Grievances on Score of Lack of Roads and of Ineffi- cient Administration of Liquor Laws—Think License Would Check Drunkenness.

PORCUPINE, Aug. 2.—This is by no means the boom town that it was a short time ago when the mining fever was at its height. Wildcatting has well-nigh ceased, and stock speculators having wrung all of the revenue that they could from a credulous public, no longer find this a profitable field. The town was sadly damaged by fire. These factors have conspired to take out of Porcupine many of its former inhabitants, and have produced a quietude strangely contrasting with conditions not so long ago when almost every resident confidently dreamt that fortune would be his. So much has Porcupine flattened out that now the people are satisfied if they can snatch a living.

There are, however, prospects and population still here, as the Liberal touring party found upon its arrival today. "Mines are being worked, not in stock markets, but by the ground. Much money is required to get the gold out of the ground, but the operators seem to think that the mines will pay, for they are steadily going on with the sinking of shafts. The boom was followed by a collapse, yet now that the people have realized that hard work is necessary to extract the mineral resources, there may be still a considerable yield of wealth, and the town may have some permanency."

Strong Demand for Roads.
Here, as in other parts of Northern Ontario, the Liberal touring party found complaints of the absence of good roads. Porcupine asserts that in this respect it has been ignored; that while the Ontario Government has been deriving revenue from the mines, it has spent only a few thousand dollars on roads. The people say that they are tired of promises.

Through his Northern Ontario trip Mr. Rowell has touched very lightly on the liquor question. Here in Porcupine the feeling over the absence of licenses is intense. The town being a mining camp, the government has granted no licenses. The consequence has been the establishment and operation of many "blind pigs." Porcupine

AMERICAN BORN PRIESTS TO DEPART FROM CANADA

Redemptorist Order Is no Longer Subject to Control at Baltimore, and Priests Will Novitiate at College To Be Centrally Located in Canada.

QUEBEC, Aug. 2.—(Can. Press.)—The Redemptorist Order as far as Canada is concerned, is no longer subject to control from the American mother-house at Baltimore, Md. This change, which has been under consideration for some time past at Rome, was finally decided on the feast day of St. Alphonsus, founder of the order, which occurred on Thursday last, and yesterday the news of the change was cabled to the order in this city.

Heretofore, the Redemptorist Order in the U. S. have had control of the churches entrusted to their charge in Canada, and the members of the religious order governed from the mother-house in Baltimore, Md., which not only suggested the names of the respective rectors who received their appointments from Rome, but also appointed the fathers to perform the

Big Cut in Cotton Tariff

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—(Can. Press.)—The house today passed, 158 to 72, the cotton tariff revision bill, which the Democrat majority claims will reduce the duties on cotton and cotton manufactures by approximately 21 per cent. The measure is identical with that voted last year by President Taft on the ground that it was not based on official information. Some house members express the belief that the senate will pass it and put the legislation up to the president again.

WITNESSES THREATENED

Death Menace Hangs Over Those Giving Evidence Against Italian Accused of Murder in Montreal.

MONTREAL, August 2.—(Can. Press.)—Witness after witness at the preliminary hearing in the case of Carlo Battista, charged with the murder of Salvatore Macaruso, this afternoon swore to the receipt of threatening letters declaring that death would be the penalty for testifying against the accused. Crown Prosecutor Walsh is having a difficult time in making his case. The murder took place at 6 o'clock a week ago Monday, on the corner of Latour and St. Genevieve-sts. The accused is alleged to have fired two bullets into his victim. Many saw the shooting.

Little Mary King, 10 years old, who was only a few feet away when the murder occurred, testified this afternoon, and after looking at Battista declared he was the man who did the shooting. Police have been detailed to guard the witnesses. Later in the afternoon two more witnesses were produced, Mrs. Jack Hanford, wife of the grocery storekeeper into whose establishment the victim was carried, and Sophie Barritt, who was seated on a doorstep only a few feet away from the men when the fatal shots were fired, and both positively identified Battista as the man who had shot and killed Macaruso.

TWO TAKEN ON BIGAMY CHARGE

William P. Bull Said to Have Married Another Woman While Olive Sawyer Was Still His Wife.

Charged with bigamy, William Percy Bull of Peter-st., and a woman who calls herself Mrs. Barbara L. Bull, were arrested last night at the house on Peter-st., by Detectives Newton and Wallace. Both are being held for $2000 bail.

It is charged that Bull married the woman last June without bothering to release himself from the legal claims of a previous marriage with Olive Sawyer, with whom he lived for some time in this city. According to the story told by the Sawyer girl, who is known variously as Olive or Florence, Bull went last summer to work in Oakville, and while there stayed at the home of the woman he contracted the marriage with. She is from Oakville, whose maiden name is not known. The pair have lived in Toronto. It was as a result of information given to the police by the legal wife, that the arrests were made. The woman with whom Bull has been living, is being held, as it is charged that she knew at the time when she married him, that he was not free.

Two Gunmen Still at Large Arrest Expected Shortly

"Gip the Blood" and "Lefty Louie" May be Apprehended Any Moment. "Whitey" Lewis Refuses to Respond to Questions Put by Commissioner Dougherty.

NEW YORK, August 2.—(Can. Press.)—With "Whitey" Lewis and "Dago" Frank locked in the Tombs, as two of the four gunmen who murdered Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, on July 16, police headquarters professed tonight to expect to receive news at any moment of the capture of "Gip the Blood" and "Lefty Louie," the two of the quartette who are still at large.

Lewis, who was arrested last night at a resort near Kingston, N.Y., and brought here to-day, refused to admit when examined by Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty, that he had any knowledge of the shooting and said that on the day before the murder he went out of town to visit relatives. He was very vague, however, as to just where these "relatives" lived. He was held for further examination on Tuesday.

That the two gunmen still missing are in hiding in the same region where Lewis was picked up, was the belief expressed at headquarters to-night, and it was reported that a squad of detectives still scouring the neighborhood are hot on their trail.

It was said by Assistant District Attorney Moss, however, that he had received word from Auburn that the men were hiding in or near that city, and it is understood that detectives from the district attorney's office have been made to elicit a story from him.

PAST WEEK'S WEATHER IDEAL THRU PRAIRIES

Saskatchewan's Yield Alone Will Be 150,000,000 Bushels— Crop Over Whole Western Country in Ten Days To Two Weeks Earlier.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 2.—The weather conditions for the past week have been ideal through the three prairie provinces, and as a consequence the crop outlook is very promising. The generous rains of July have had a good effect upon cereal vegetation, and the straw, which at one time gave evidence of shortness, is now long, strong and healthy. The ever-increasing area planted under wheat and oat cultivation makes the assurance of a crop practically independent of local climatic conditions.

J. Bruce Walker, commissioner of immigration, who has just returned from an extensive trip thru the prairie provinces, says: "This year's crop will be 50,000,000 bushels ahead of the best western record. In Manitoba, while the acreage sown to wheat is about the same as last year, the yield will be much greater, and to-day the outlook is for a bumper crop in both quality and quantity. In Saskatchewan

Following the convention the delegates will move on to Chicago, arriving there to-morrow night at 10:30 o'clock.
