WILL PROBATED.

Jemima Evans has been obtained by Messrs. Jarvis & Vining, the solicitors. The estate amounts to about $4,000, and consists of a house and lot on Princess avenue, and personalty. The will bequeathes $25 to the million-dollar twentieth century fund of the Methodist Church, and $25 to the St. James' Methodist Church, Montreal. The remainder of the estate is left to the family of the deceased. FACILE FISHERMEN.

Several young men connected with Struthers' wholesale house, drove out to take the air on Saturday, and incidentally test their piscatorial powers in the fresh water creek near Lambeth. A couple of hours' industrious and patient tapping the stream, resulted in the capture of a beautiful specimen of Esox lucius, 361/2 inches in length and some 64 ounces in weight, besides several finny ones of lesser avoirdupois. BACK FROM CALIFORNIA.

Rev. J. G. Stuart, pastor of Knox

Church, South London, holds a record for fast traveling. He left the city on April 11 for Southern California, spent seven or eight days there, and reached home on Friday last. Mr. Stuart was in California eight years ago, and sees a wonderful improvement since that time. Irrigation has made the desert blossom like the rose. Thousands of acres have been reclaimed by means of the artesian well system, the water being collected at the foot of the mountains, and conveyed through pipes over immense areas. The once arid and valueless land is now worth from $400 to $500 an acre, and is wonderfully fertile. Mr. Stuart met many old friends in Southern California. LITTLE BOYS AND GIRLS DANCE.

The closing exercises of Messrs. Dayton & McCormick's juvenile classes were held at the Palace Dancing Academy Saturday afternoon. Over 200 people were present and 100 pupils participated in the programme, which consisted of twelve dances-the latest of the season, including the "Society Cakewalk," the little tots, some of whom are only 6 years of age, dancing it in a most graceful manner. The gowns of the little girls were very elaborate. The academy was decorated for the occasion with numerous palms, ferns, lilies and cut flowers. The programme closed at 6 o'clock and the parents and friends of the little ones present expressed themselves as delighted with the afternoon's entertainment. The season which closed Saturday has been the most successful ever conducted by the genial pro-

PROTECTION COSTS

Estimates for 1899 Placed at $31.901-Nothing in Mrs. Hammill's Charge Against P. C. Monahan. The amount required to run the police force this year is $31,901, a slight increase over the expenditure of last year, and is made up as follows: Salaries, $28,450; clothing and equipment, $1,701; heating, lighting and sundries, including the $500 reward for the capture of Marion Brown, $1,750. The estimates in 1898 were placed at $29,575, but the amount expended was $31,362. This increase was rendered necessary by the Toohey murder and the street railway strike. Recently there have been three new men appointed to the force, and two vacancies filled, bring-ing the total number up to 40 this year, against 37 last year.

Ald. McPhillips' letter to the chief was considered. He wished to know by whose direction the $500 reward was made for Marion Brown's capture; if it had been claimed; by whom the claim was made; whether or not the reward was furnished by the council; also if any application had been made to the government to induce them to offer the reward, if not, why?

Chief Williams was instructed to notify Ald. McPhillips that the mayor, as chairman of the police commission-ers, had offered the reward, and his ers, had offered the reward, and his action had been approved by the board. The reward is claimed by Marshal A. B. Dilley, of North Yakima, Washington, and that no application was made to the government to induce them to offer a reward. to induce them to offer a reward. Another letter from Ald. McPhillips, asking for a statement as to how much had been paid into and out of the police benefit fund, was referred to the police benefit executive commit-

Mayor Wilson brought up the mated charge against P. C. Monahan, and Probate to the will of the late Mrs.! tion was unanimously adopted: "The police commissioners desire to record that, after investigation, there is not the slightest ground for the charge alleged to have been made by Mrs. Hammill against P. C. Monahan, and this record is made in justice to that officer." The affair was investigated at the time of the occurrence, over a year ago, and the board is of the same opinion now as then, that "there is nothing in it."

Mrs. Hammill, the police have learned, has suffered from hallucinations for many years. The members present were Mayor Wilson (chairman), Judge W. Elliot, and E. Jones Parke, P.M.

Bray. CITY HALL NOTES

Watkins, Revs. J. H. Moorhouse, G. M.

Cox, R. S. W. Howard and H. E.

A regular meeting of the city council will be held tonight. A special meeting is talked of for Thursday night to wrestle with the estimates. Meantime the finance committee will take a turn or two out of the stubborn figures.

Ald. Jolly's old-time motion to exempt ratepayers paying for permanent sidewalks will be discussed again by the aldermen tonight. Ald. Douglass also has a motion not only to encourage, but to enforce, the laying of permanent walks. It is feared that in the struggle for supremacy, the motions will meet the fate of the cats of Kilkenny.

Ald. Douglass' motion is along the lines suggested by the city solicitor after an examination of Hamilton's action re permanent walks. It is to provide for the laying of cement walks only, the ratepayer to pay direct in ten year debentures 40 per cent—a proportion about equal to the cost of a plank walk, and the 60 per cent to be paid in the same way out of the general rate.

The mayor sides with Ald. Douglass against Ald. Jolly, and the council meeting is approached with uncertainty. There is disunion—an open breach in the ranks of the faithful. The mayor claims that under Ald. Douglass' motion 120 miles of permanent walks could be laid without making a higher rate for walks than

11/2 mills at any time during the next

The point in Ald. Douglass' motion which appeals most strongly to the brow-furrowed financiers at the present time is that it would do away with the necessity of providing out of the current revenue any amount for new walks for this year. But Ald. Jolly will not forsake his ship.

Snowstorm in Scotland Killing the Sheep and Lambs-The Queen's Wish.

London, May 1.-There was a heavy snowstorm this morning in Perthshire, Scotland. The unseasonable weather resulted in the killing of great numbers of sheep and lambs. PEACEFUL LABOR DEMONSTRA-TIONS.

London, May 1.-May Day proceedings were quiet here today and on the continent. The customary labor de-monstration in London today consisted of a procession from the Thames Embankment to Hyde Park. There was also a cart-horse parade, the animals being gaily decked with ribbons and rosettes. This procession paraded the streets in South London.

On the continent work was proceed. ing as usual, except in Italy, where the day was celebrated as a day of rest. There was perfect order everywhere. THE QUEEN'S WISH.

The London correspondent of the New York Journal says that Queen Victoria has expressed a desire that all memhers of her family who can possibly be in England, shall attend at Windsor Castle, May 24, when she celebrates her 80th birthday. "FORCE AND MATTER."

Darmstadt, May 1.-Prof. Frederick Karl Christian Ludwig Burehner, the author of "Force and Matter," is dead. Prof. Burehner was born March 19, 1824. In the work referred to which has been translated into most European languages, Dr. Burehner explains the principles of his system of philosophy. He insists on the eternity of matter, the immortality of force, and the universal simultaneousness of light and life, and the infinity of forces of being in time and space.

To the Editor of The Advertiser: Would you kindly allow me space for a few explanations, re a little book that I have recently published, "Dreams of the First and Second Century." I have received a number of insinuations that we are ashamed of the work, and, consequently, are not advertising or pushing its This is a curious misconception of our ideas. We utterly believe that which we have written, therefore cannot be ashamed of it. We are simply waiting for certain events, one of which is the issuing of a new work which further explains this first one, which is really only a text book of a theology. I also wish to state that my work is entirely Christian and Scriptural, a fact that is easily proven.

This letter is not an advertising scheme, but merely a defense of a position that I find a most difficult one at best, since I stand between so many opposing elements. I am compelled by neither fear nor fanaticism, but by truthfulness, to do so. Very sincerely.

A devoted husband is one who lets his wife cut the leaves of all the new magazines. Justice Bookstaver, in the New York supreme court, dismissed the writ of habeas corpus in the case of Roland B. Molineux, accused of the murder of Mrs. Adams, and ordered that the prisoner remain in the Tombs. At Rock Rapids, Iowa, Robert King, hotel-keeper, of Paisley, Ont., and A. J. King got seven years; Conover got fourteen years.
