You Men Who Need Overcoats---Come Saturday and Share in This Great Offering of Dark Grey Melton Chesterfields at $12.75

The Quantity is Limited, Probably Enough to Last For One Hour Saturday Morning, so Come at Store Opening

THIS is really a remarkable overcoat-buying opportunity for men Saturday, for we believe that such quality of Chesterfields can't be produced or bought for this figure in the ordinary way. The reason we're offering them at such a figure is because they were a manufacturer's overmakes, bought at practically our own figure. And the first sixty men who come Saturday will save dollars on a coat that is not only well tailored and finished, but on a comfortable winter garment that should give, with ordinary care, several seasons' wear.

Dark Grey Melton Cloth is one of the most serviceable, warm, and stylish cloths a coat can be made of, especially this quality, which is closely woven, and which we recommend to hold its rich, dark grey shade. They are all very smartly tailored in single-breasted, fly-front style, with notch lapels, rich velvet collar, neat natural shoulders, slightly shaped back, and are an easy-walking length just covering the knees. Lined throughout with twilled serge. Sizes 36 to 42. Early special, Saturday, each 12.75

Big, Long, Comfortable Ulsters Are Special Value Saturday at $14.75

Men who are much out of doors this cold wintry weather would appreciate the comfort and warmth of one of these big, heavy storm Ulsters. They are made of a thick, dark grey frieze material and are interlined with sheepskin chamois. In double-breasted style, with high storm collar, half belt at back, and convertible lapels. Sizes 36 to 44. Extraordinarily good value, Saturday, each 14.75

A Clearance of Men's Suits at Dollars Less--Early Special Saturday, $10.75

These suits were made in the latest styles, but there are not enough to place them in regular stock, so out they go Saturday, at several dollars less than their quality warrants. Carefully tailored of firm winter tweeds in several shades of grey, suitable for business, some with thread stripes, others with pin checks, others in mixtures with a little green in it. Three-button sac models, single-breasted, have smooth natural shoulders, well-hung sleeves, close-fitting collar, medium-high vest, and stylish, medium-narrow trousers. The linings are durable twilled serge. Sizes 36 to 44. But it's advisable to be here the first hour to be sure of this range of sizes. Early special, suit 10.75
