NEW YORK HARBOR CLOSELY WATCHED

up and their crews sleeping on board. German Captains Obstinately. It was learned that the commanders of several of the German ships self-interned here have refused permission to the collectors' officers to go below their main decks on trips of inspection. Mr. McKee declined to discuss the subject, except to say that the ship's officers were within their rights unless he obtained evidence that neutrality regulations were being violated. Acting on instructions from the attorney-general's office, the U. S. attorney and the New York branch of the bureau of investigation, department of justice are making arrangements to meet what was described as "an emergency."

The arrangements, it was said, include the mobilization of all the secret service agents in the greater city in order that points of great strategic importance may be safeguarded.

EXPECT RIOT CALLS.

Special to The Toronto World.

New York, Feb. 2.—There has been symptoms of great uneasiness among the sailors aboard the German liners which are tied up at the wharves in this city and Hoboken, or are riding at anchor in the Hudson River opposite 133rd street, caused the police of this city, Hoboken and Jersey City to prepare for riot calls should the United States decide to break with Germany.

Tension along the Hoboken waterfront, where eighteen of the German liners are docked, has nearly reached the breaking point, thru rumors that the men have been heard to make threats as to what havoc they intended to work in the new Jersey city should war be declared.

WAR PICTURES MANAGED BY CANADIAN COMPANY

Rights for This Country Were Bought by Firm With Headquarters Here.

In a recent London despatch to an evening paper reference was made by a special correspondent to the latest war film from the Canadian firm, who, after declaring that "every man, woman and child throughout the length and breadth of Canada should make a point of seeing the pictures of Canada's battalions actively at work," goes on to state that the Canadian rights of this film have been sold by Sir Max Aitken of the Canadian War Records Office to an American firm for $20,000.

The purchasers of the Canadian rights are Messrs. Jule and Jay J. Allen of the Famous Players Film Service, Limited, a Canadian firm, with headquarters in this city, not an "American" one, as the term is understood here. The distinction is an important one in the public mind, especially at the present time.
