LARRY'S BOYS HOME AND IN FIRST PLACE

Win and Lose in Closing Tilt on Saturday With Birds at Baltimore.

Baltimore, Aug. 19.—The Leafs and Birds split their double bill here today, thus enabling Toronto to go home with a clear lead in the International League. Fowler tried to walk. Jacobson hit first. Truesdale walked. The Birds' only run was Bentley's homer in the eighth. The Leafs won the second, when Hill held the Leafs to four hits and a shut-out, while the Birds pounded Leake out in the first round, and then peppered Warhop steadily, not forgetting seven runs in the seventh. There was very little in the way of betting. Most of the paid had the odds for the various races. The crowd was not so much as a bet, and did not know what was being laid against a horse, it was only the odds of one of the handbooks and get the odds.
