

Miss Morgan was introduced to the Convention, and said a few words in relation to her consecration to this Missionary work. On motion, it was decided that Miss Morgan be engaged to go to Japan.

It was moved and carried, that Miss Leake, of Parrsboro, N. S., be corresponded with, with a view to securing her services as Matron for the Chinese Home at Victoria.

It was decided that 3,000 reports be printed, and the preparation of the same be left with Mrs. Strachan, Mrs. S. J. Hunter and Mrs. Dr. Rosebrugh.

Resolved, that Miss Wilkes be instructed to prepare the leaflets for the year, and that the bills for the same be sent to her and not to the Treasurer.

Moved and carried, that Mission Bands be supplied with letters and leaflets the same as Auxiliaries.

Moved and carried, that the leaflet on "Our Work" be revised and 10,000 copies of it be published and sent out to Auxiliaries. The names of our Missionaries to be published in this leaflet.

Resolved that we instruct our Cor. Secretary to write to Dr. Sutherland calling his attention to some irregularities in the receiving of the Outlook.

It was decided that the printing of the monthly letters be continued, and the matter of preparation be left with Mrs. Strachan.

Votes of thanks were passed to the Ministers, the Press, to Mr. F. W. Watkins for auditing the Treasurer's account, to Dr. Withrow for donations of S. S. papers to the school in Japan, to Mrs. Cunningham for programme for public meetings during the year, to the Trustees and Choir of the Church, and especially to the solo singers in the evening meeting.

A rising vote of thanks was passed to the ladies of Belleville for their kind hospitality, and also to the young ladies for the bountiful lunch provided each day.

Mrs. Lewis replied in suitable terms on behalf of the Belleville ladies.

It was decided that the week of prayer (first week in January) be considered "self-denial" week, and that the funds thus raised be kept separate.

The Eastern Branch is to respond to address of welcome next year. Nova Scotia Branch is to present a paper.

The thanks of the Convention were given to Mrs. Graham for her excellent paper, and it was decided to have it printed in the Outlook.

The motto chosen for the year, was Mal. iii : 10, "Bring ye all the tithes," etc.

Mrs. Chandler, on invitation, offered the closing prayer, and the Sixth Annual Meeting came to a close.

ADDIE CHISHOLM,

Rec. Secretary.