THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN N. B. FRIDAY, APRIL 27, 1917

INVICTUS

Was not only greeted by a crowded house but was a great artistic success. Not only was the singing and acting worthy of professional artists, but there were brilliant specialties; and the costumes and stage setting added to the very satisfying effect of the whole entertainment. The musical director, D. Arnold Fox, had a most responsive chorus, the solos were brilliantly rendered, and the lighter comedy parts were in most capable hards. Bouquets went over the footlights almost in showers, and the frequent and hearty applause indicated the great enjoyment of the whole programme by the audience.

fore would not be complete without reference to the excellent work of F. C. MacNeill as director. Not only did Mr. MacNeill assume the role of the pompous admiral with great credit to himself last night, but the success of the opera is chiefly due to him. For weeks he has devoted himself to directing rehearsals and perfecting the whole performance. It may be added that he was fortunate in having D. Arnold Fox as musical di-

Mullin, between the first and second acts, was a wonderfully graceful and well executed performance, and won for the young artist enthusiastic curtain calls.

The sailors' hornpipe, danced by Miss Catherine McAvity, Miss Kathleen Coster, Miss Kathleen Sturdee and Miss Dorothy Blizard, was a revelation in its daintiness and rhythmic motion, and they were compelled to respond to a persistent encore.
