LOCAL NEWS

Capt. W. R. Bennett of St. John, has been appointed an inspector of hulls and equipment of steamboats under the marine department.

Preliminary and qualifying examinations for the outside civil service will be held in St. John and Moncton on November 14, 15 and 16.

There is some suspicion of incendiarism in connection with the burning of the schoolhouse at Lake Latimer yesterday.

At the next meeting of the common council, Commissioner Fisher will recommend that the city should undertake next spring, the collection of ashes and garbage.

Emily Talbot, a domestic in the employ of F. W. Daniel, Robbsey, was severely burned from head to foot yesterday morning while lighting a fire. She intended to use kerosene and took wood alcohol by mistake. After receiving local treatment she was sent to the hospital. Her burns, while painful, are not expected to be fatal.

Sydney Evans and Stephen McCavour of Lunenburg, had a narrow escape from death this week when their fishing boat capsized off shore. They were going out with a load of fish poles when the boat tipped and they were in the water up to their necks for several hours. They were drifting to sea in the dusk when a passing schooner sighted them and picked them up, landing them at Musquoddy. Mr. McCavour received severe bruises around the chest when the wiper poles rolled over on him.

ADVANCE SHOWING of Sweaters

We are now in a position to show you seventy-five different lines of Men's and Boys' Sweaters, which is certainly an extraordinary assortment when you consider the shortage of materials and dyes-stuffs. However, we have succeeded in procuring them in all shades, such as greys, browns, greens, reds and blues.
We invite you to come and look them over. Our prices are very low when you consider the advance in all-wool goods. We bought our goods early, for cash, and therefore are in a position to quote you the very lowest prices possible.

RECENT DEATHS

Hon. H. J. B. Woods, postmaster general of Newfoundland, died yesterday.
The death of Samuel D. Freese, aged seventy-three years, occurred yesterday at his home in Doaktown, Northumberland county. He is survived by three sons and one daughter. Mr. Freese, who was a widely known land surveyor, was the discoverer of the rich deposits of tungsten on the Miramichi which are now being developed by Upper Canadian capitalists.
The death of Mrs. Lionel Burbo of Steeves Mountain occurred at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Minor Gould, Moncton, on Friday. She was twenty-two years of age. Besides her parents she is survived by her husband, Lionel Burbo, of Steeves Mountain, one brother, Benjamin Gould, and two sisters, Mabel and Florence, both at home. Four uncles also survive, James Gould, George Gould, Robert Sheppard of the 146th Battalion, Valcartier, and William Sheppard, of Newcastle.
