TRAINER SHOTS JUDGES OF RACE

Webb Objects to Ruling,
Sends Bullets Into Two Officials.

Akron, Ohio, Oct. 22.—Slim Webb, race horse trainer, shot and seriously wounded track judges Peter F. Callen, Toronto, and F. W. Gerhard, after a quarrel in the lobby of the Portage Hotel, here on Saturday. A blood transfusion furnished by one of his racing associates was believed to have saved the life of Judge Callen. Gerhard also is expected to live.

Gerhard and Callen were shot in the back, the former twice. The quarrel is said to have started Thursday after a race won by a horse trained by Webb. The judges ruled that a jockey on another horse pulled his mount to allow Webb's horse to win.

Saturday Webb walked into the lobby of the hotel where Gerhard and Callen were talking, and without further warning opened fire.

The Giants' Dying Gasp!

Big Jack Bentley, whom many believe may develop into a Babe Ruth of the National League, went in for the Giants as a pinch hitter in the last inning of the sixth and final game of the World Series. He went out soon thereafter on an infield grounder. This shows him in the last play of the series which the Yanks won handily. Umpire Nalin has called the out and is hoisting it for the dugout where he will remain throughout the winter.

THE BLACK PANTHER'S CUB

With the face of a Madonna and the heart of a panther, she lived a woman of wealth and power, in Paris. How she compared herself to Faustine, Rome's cruel Empress, of by gone days, and rose to dizzy heights, only to be dragged into oblivion, weaves itself into a cinema drama of untold wealth of dramatic action, sensational scenes, and photographic splendor.

Donovan Home

Louis Donovan, 126-pound Maritime boxing champion, arrived home yesterday from Toronto where he took part in the Olympic try-outs there last Thursday and Friday. Donovan won one bout but lost on points against George Barber. In the finals, Barber was out-pointed by "Mickey" McDonald of Hamilton. In his bout against Barber, Louis says that he earned the shade in the first two rounds but could not keep up to the pace Barber set from then on. "Both Barber and McDonald are good men and I have no allies to offer. It was a good experience, however, for me," said Louis.

COLUMBIA WILL RACE BLUENOSE

Gloucester, Mass., Oct. 22.—The schooner Columbia, champion of the Gloucester fishing fleet and challenger for the international fishermen's trophy, was preparing today to set sail for Halifax to compete in the international championship series, scheduled to begin on Saturday, Oct. 27.

In a trial race held here yesterday, but unfinished owing to the lack of wind, to choose a challenger, the Columbia proved herself the fastest schooner fishing out of this harbor and eliminated the Henry Ford as a possibility for international competition this year.

Whether he will command the Columbia at Halifax is still a question. Under the strict rules governing the international event, Captain Pine may not qualify as a professional fisherman, his friends say, as he now spends his time in an office. If "Piney" is not eligible is it said that Captain J. Henry Larkin, skipper of the Boston schooner Mayflower, will take charge of the U. S. challenger.
