

MANY AT FUNERAL OF HON. J. P. BURCHILL

Newcastle, Dec. 20.—The funeral of Hon. John P. Burchill took place at 2.30 this afternoon and was one of the largest seen in Nelson for many years. The members of the Masonic Order of both Newcastle and Chatham attended in a body. Rev. Archdeacon Forsythe of Chatham conducted the service, assisted by Rev. W. J. Bate of Newcastle, while the Masonic funeral service was conducted by Past Grand Master, J. D. B. F. MacKenzie of Chatham.

Interment was in the family plot in St. Paul's churchyard, Bushville.

BONAR LAW FUND NEARING OBJECTIVE

Total Subscribed to Date is $984—Remainder Likely Soon

The acknowledgments yesterday in the Bonar Law Monument Fund bring the total to $984, only $16 short of the $1,000 asked for by Dr. J. C. Webster. There should be no difficulty in completing that amount before the end of the week. Dr. Webster felt that $1,000 would be better than $1,000, but in his original suggestion the cost was estimated at from $1,000 to $1,200. With $1,000 raised through the subscription fund opened by this newspaper there will be no difficulty about the rest. The Telegraph-Journal hopes to be able to write "Pins" before Christmas with regard to this fund and to congratulate the subscribers upon deserving a happier Christmas through their recollections by reason of the fact.

DEATHS

Mrs. Eliza Mawhinney. Mrs. Eliza Mawhinney, Mace's Bay, died December 12, aged 89 years. She leaves five sons and five daughters: Jarvis W. and James E. Chance Harbor; Robert T., Wilson G., and Arthur J. Mace's Bay, St. John county; Mrs. Millage Crossman, Moncton; Mrs. Martha Thorpe, St. John; Mrs. H. Colin McKay and Mrs. Walter Boyd, Pennfield, and Miss Emma, at home.

Edward J. Slattery.

The death is announced at Boston of Edward J. Slattery, of St. John, N. B., on Wednesday, at the South End. He was the husband of Annie Lenihan Slattery, and the father of Mrs. K. Lee and Walter Slattery. The funeral will take place on Friday from the Logue Funeral Chapel, South End, to the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, for solemn high mass. Cardinal O'Connell will be present. Mr. Slattery has been in the restaurant business in Boston, since coming from St. John, and he belonged to many societies.

James Newlands.

Many friends in St. John will learn with regret of the death of James Newlands of 50 Queen street, in this city, which occurred last evening after a lingering illness. Mr. Newlands was 63 years of age and had been employed as draughtsman in the engineering department at City Hall. During the war he served overseas. He was a member of St. David's Presbyterian church. He was held in very high esteem by all who knew him. Mr. Newlands was compelled by failing health to give up active work in July of this year and has been ill ever since. He is survived by one son, Archibald J., of Montreal, and one daughter, Mrs. Roy V. Wilson of this city.

SAILORS AND SOBRIETY

A lady correspondent writes to The Times-Star:— "In reading The Times Wednesday I was much pleased to see the letter on Sailors and Sobriety. I have been for several years closely connected with the Seamen's Mission. We have our business meeting room in that building. We pass in and out any day, at any time we have occasion. We are obliged to traverse the corridors which are generally lined up with seamen. The greatest courtesy has always been shown us. If some happen to be smoking, the cigarette is at once removed, and the cap touched. I have never seen there, a drunken sailor. They are always quiet, and willing to do any favors asked. We visit the sick sailors at the hospital. The same fine characteristic is shown there—gratitude. They are sailors, and they are gentlemen as well."
