ROD AND GUN.
The Christmas issue of Rod and Gun Canada is particularly attractive and replete with many stories which will appeal to the heart of the true sportsman. Allen H. Kerr's "Front Hunting on Kenogami and Kenogamias" as the winning article will prove a realistic tale, while the ever popular F. V. Williams' "Bonnycastle Dale's" narrative are of a usual high standard. An article by P. Wallace entitled "Clam and Plover" will undoubtedly be of vivid interest as well as instructive. Guns and ammunition, along the Trap-line, and fishing notes contain several articles suitable to the various readers. Rod and Gun in Canada is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

OPERA STAR ROBBED OF COSTLY JEWELS

The Police Deny Knowing of Mme. Rappold's Loss—Insurance Detectives Investigate.

New York, Dec. 6.—It has become known that Mme. Marie Rappold, opera singer, has been robbed of jewelry valued at several thousand dollars. Presumably the articles were stolen from her apartment at 29 West Sixty-seventh street. Mme. Rappold refused to discuss the robbery yesterday, beyond saying that it had occurred and that she wished to forget about it. The police of the West Sixty-eighth street station said they had no report of the robbery on record. Detectives employed by an insurance company, however, are said to be investigating the case.

Miss Wanda Lyon, actress, who played the role of "Gertrude" in "Getting Gertrude's Garter" at the Republic Theatre reported the loss of $5,000 worth of jewelry to the police of the West Sixty-eighth street station yesterday. Miss Lyon occupies an apartment on the fifth floor of 127 West Seventy-second street with her sister, Miss Camilla Lyon.

She said that on Wednesday night a burglar broke the lock of her apartment with a jimmy. Miss Lyon had left the apartment at 8 o'clock in the evening and returning several hours later found that her rooms had been ransacked. A pearl bracelet with twelve sapphires, a gold cigarette case, a platinum ring set with four diamonds, one gold bracelet set with twenty emeralds, a platinum bracelet set with green enamel, one green gold mesh bag, one gold vanity case, a gold vanity mirror and five strings of pearls were stolen. These articles were taken from a top dresser drawer. The burglar overlooked a bracelet valued by Miss Lyon at more than $15,000.

She explained that she had received two telephone calls before leaving her apartment, and that in each case a man at the other end of the wire said he had the wrong number.

Nervous Breakdown COULDN'T SLEEP NIGHTS

To those on the verge of a nervous breakdown the following symptoms present themselves: nervous headaches, a feeling of depression, fitful, disturbed, restless and unrefreshing sleep, often troubled with frightful dreams, avoidance of crowded places, dread of being alone, horror of society, etc.

When the nerves become affected in this way the heart generally becomes affected, too, and on the first signs of any weakness of the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown, do not wait until your case becomes hopeless, but get a remedy that will at once quieten the nerves, strengthen the heart and build up the entire system.

This you will find in
MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS.

Mrs. M. Dangand, Young's Cove Road, N. B., writes:—"I was bothered very much with my heart and nerves; had nervous headaches and dizziness, could not sleep at nights, and my appetite was all gone. I was on a nervous breakdown when a neighbor told me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. This I did, and before I had the second box used I was better and would advise anyone who has nerve trouble to take them."

Price, 50c. a box at all dealers, or mailed direct by price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FIFTEEN BOILS ON NECK AT ONE TIME

Any one who has suffered from boils can sympathize with poor old Job. There was no Burdock Blood Bitters in those days, so Job had to suffer in silence. Now-a-days no one need endure the misery of boils.

Boils are simply evidences of the bad blood within coming to the surface and just when you get rid of one, another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery.

All the poulticing and lancing you may do will not stop more coming. What you have to do is take

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS and the blood will be cleansed of all its impurities, and then every boil will disappear.

Mr. Roy McSwain, High Bank, P. E. I., writes:—"I was troubled with boils for some time, and had as many as fifteen on my neck at one time. After taking one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters they commenced to get better, and after I had taken two bottles I was relieved of them and felt much better. I think B. B. B. is a grand blood medicine, and can recommend it highly."

For the past forty-five years B. B. B. has been manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ARCTIC EXPLORER SENDS MAIL HOME

Schooner Bowdoin of MacMillan Expedition Several Days Ahead of Schedule.

Wiscasset, Me., Dec. 6.—The schooner Bowdoin with the Arctic expedition headed by Donald M. MacMillan, had entered Hudson Bay on August 19, several days ahead of its schedule, and it was hoped to pass through the dangerous Fury-Hecia Strait, on the west coast of Barren Land, in ten days, according to word received from MacMillan by Charles S. Sewall, a fellow-Bowdoin College alumnus.

The letter was dated "On Board the Bowdoin, August 19, latitude 64 degrees north; longitude 76 degrees 30 minutes west."

This was the last chance to send mail, the explorer said. He wrote that unless the people at home heard from the expedition again by April or May it would indicate they had not been able to pass through the Strait and had been forced to pass the winter farther down the coast.

MacMillan reported himself and crew of six well and happy and confident of accomplishing the work mapped out for them. Many icebergs had been encountered but there was no pan ice. The schooner was near enough to the magnetic pole to render the compass useless and was guided by the coastline in steering a course.

"The boat is a wonder," the explorer wrote, adding that he felt justified in his faith in the Bowdoin's ability to weather rough seas and ice floes. He said if the schooner succeeded in getting through Fury-Hecia Strait, the chief obstacle to the success of the expedition, he would head for winter quarters on the western side of the great uncharted Barren Land.

REPORT BARD CRYPTOGRAM.

Said to Have Been Found Under a Portrait of Shakespeare.

Chicago, Dec. 6.—The recently discovered portrait of Shakespeare has awakened considerable interest among Shakespearean scholars, especially since Colonel Haydon of this city is said to have found a cryptogram in the letter press under the portrait. It is most likely the work of William Marshall, who engraved the portrait of Shakespeare for a poem published in 1640.

The book was found in a London book store by Colonel Henry D. Hughes of Philadelphia. Colonel Hughes is a member of the Chicago Board of Trade. Colonel Fabian now has the book and hopes to find the key to the cryptogram contained in the volume.

"DISRAELI"

Featuring the Noted London Star, MR. GEORGE ARLISS

IT HAS NOT BEEN OUR PLEASURE to screen a picture that was more thoroughly appreciated and genuinely enjoyed than Mr. Arliss' portrayal of "Disraeli," yesterday. Many of our patrons did us the special courtesy of their personal thanks and compliments which are very grateful to the ears of theatre folk these days when picture picking is increasingly difficult. In our own judgment and taking the comment of yesterday's patrons into consideration we would urge upon lovers of good pictures—especially stories of historical truth—to see "Disraeli" before it is taken off our screen Wednesday night. Many will be attracted to the Imperial this evening by the election returns and if there are not enough seats we feel certain the third day's run of the picture will accommodate everybody.

ALICE JOYCE in "HER LORD AND MASTER"

Should a Wife Obey Her Husband? The question has been debated pro and con for several generations. Many women insist that it is to be left out of the ceremony. There was a girl whose parents spoiled her. She ruled them in every respect. She longed for a husband who would curb her will and force her to obey him. A picture for the whole family.
