RECENT DEATHS

George Everton Emberley.
The death of George Everton Emberley, of the teaching staff of Macdonald College, took place at his home in St. Anne de Bellevue, Quebec, on Saturday. Mr. Emberley during the war was on the munitions inspection staff in St. John. His wife was formerly Miss A. May Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Evans, of this city. She and four children by his first wife, Kenneth, Hugh, Dorothy and Marion, together with his mother, of Yarker (Ont.), and two brothers, survive him. Many friends here will extend their sympathy to the bereaved family.

Dennis Boyle.
The death of Dennis Boyle occurred yesterday at his residence in Hickey road. He was a well-known resident of the parish of Simonds. He leaves one daughter, Miss Annie Boyle, and four sons, John, James, Edward and Frank, all at home. The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock. Coaches will leave King square at one o'clock.

Patrick Maloney.
The death of Patrick Maloney occurred on Sunday at the home of his son, Stephen, 273 Prince street, West End. The late Mr. Maloney formerly made his home at Cork, York county, but for the last two years has been living with his son in West St. John. He is survived by his wife, five sons, William and Patrick of the State of Washington; James, of Portland (Ore.); Daniel, of Newark (N. J.); and Stephen, of West St. John; three daughters, Mrs. George Hurley, of Hanwell, York county; Mrs. John O'Neill, of Calais (Me.); and Mrs. William Burns, of St. Stephen, and one brother, James, of Cork, York county. The body will be taken to his former home in Cork this morning for burial there today.

Nehemiah Nightingale.
The death of Nehemiah Nightingale occurred at his home at Cumberland Bay on December 16. He is survived by his wife, four brothers, Levi, of the Range; Elias, of Newcastle Bridge; Simon and Emory, of Fairfield (Me.); and one sister, Mrs. John McNamara, of Coal Creek. Mr. Nightingale was sixty-three years of age and a member of the Baptist church. He will be greatly missed by the people of the place. The funeral took place at the Range.

James McEwen Black.
On Monday, December 26, at the home of his brother in West Quaco, James McEwen Black passed away after a lingering illness at the age of seventy-two years and five months. He united with the St. Martin's Baptist church at the age of seventeen and retained that faith until the end. He leaves two brothers, C. Fred, Black, St. Martins, and Benjamin Black, West Quaco. The funeral was conducted by Rev. P. A. Habely on Wednesday afternoon. Interment taking place in Mosher Hill cemetery.

Miss Edna M. Wasson.
Cambridge, N. B., Dec. 31—On Wednesday morning, December 28, at Jemseg, Queens county, there passed peacefully into rest Edna M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wasson, at the age of forty-four years. She had been a life-long invalid. Her parents survive, together with four brothers, Captains E. L. and B. M. Wasson, of Calais (Me.); D. W. Wasson, of California, and W. W. Wasson, at home. The funeral services on Thursday, December 29, were attended by a large number. Pastor D. Patterson, of Cambridge-Narrows, officiated.

Donald McIntosh.
The death of Donald McIntosh occurred on Sunday at the residence of his son, Andrew L. McIntosh, Quispamsis. Mr. McIntosh came to Canada from Scotland fifty years ago, when he was thirty years of age, and since 1875 he had conducted a florists' establishment in Rotheray avenue. Some time ago he was injured from a fall and he had been in failing health ever since. He is survived by three sons, William McIntosh, of this city; Andrew, of Quispamsis; and Philip J. R., of Stanford, Conn., and two daughters, Mrs. William McCallum, of this city and Mrs. Charles F. B. Rows, of Toronto.

William H. Bradley.
William H. Bradley, a well-known resident of the Nashwaak Valley died on Monday morning at the age of eighty-nine years and six months. He is survived by one son, George T. of Nashwaak Village and one daughter, Mrs. Rowley Mauer, of Marysville.

Mrs. John McKenzie.
Mrs. D. Jennie McKenzie passed away at her home in Fredericton on Sunday morning, at the age of twenty-seven years. She is survived by her husband and her mother, Mrs. H. T. Scholey; also by four brothers and four sisters.

Thomas Merritt.
Thomas Merritt, a well-known and aged resident of Fredericton, died on Sunday at the home of his son-in-law, J. Alex. Crockett, Fredericton. He is survived by three sons, John, of Maple Grove; Samuel, of Plaster Rock; and Thomas, of Brewer, Me., and two daughters, Mrs. J. H. Thomas, of Cross Creek and Mrs. J. Alexander Crockett, of Fredericton.

Edmund P. Hammond.
Edmund Page Hammond, of Kingsclear, died at the home of his wife, Mrs. T. C. Everett, on New Year's Eve. He was aged eighty-four years. Mrs. George Hoyt, of Prince William, is a half-sister and Guilford Hammond, of Prince William and George Hammond, of the west, are half-brothers.
