GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

MAKES BIG HIT AT OPERA HOUSE

"Girl in the Air" Has a Captivating and Spectacular Offering—Meets With a Surprise on Her First Trip—Other Good Attractions.

One of the most novel and captivating vaudeville offerings ever booked in the Opera House was enjoyed by capacity audiences last evening. The act was that of "The Girl in the Air," who appeared in a spectacular scenic serial surprise.

Two see a young lady floating through the air right over your head, to have her sit and chat with you, were some of the pleasant surprises which greeted patrons last evening. The scenic effects of the act are a feature in themselves and her trip suspended from illuminated balloons is worth seeing. She will not soon forget her first trip in the Opera House for the audience one audacious young gentleman had one for her, which made a decided hit with all. The act is one of real merit and is bound to make a popular hit today and on Monday.

A real musical treat was enjoyed from the efforts of Blanchette and Devere. The former rendered several selections on the violin and sang most acceptably while her partner's playing on the piano evoked well merited applause.

Henry Ferrier has a juggling act which made a marked impression on the large audiences last evening. He is really clever, and some of his feats won rounds of applause. He interpreters his act with some comedy, which makes it doubly popular.

George Hearn soon won his audience when he appeared in an act which has a humor for a dry sort of comedy. His singing and playing were greatly enjoyed and the hearty applause he received was a tribute to his ability as an entertainer.

Nan and Pierce in their comedy skit were also well received. The acting of the lady member was amusing, while the clever eccentric dancing of her partner evoked prolonged applause.

In addition to this highly entertaining vaudeville programme there was another episode of "The Midnight Man," featuring James J. Corbett, former pugilistic heavyweight champion of the world.

YOUNG-ADAMS COMPANY

Stage Favorites Coming to Queen Square Theatre Next Monday With Attractive Plays.

After an absence of more than four years, the favorite "Young Adams Company," headed by H. Wilmet Young and Marjorie Adams, will open an engagement here at Queen Square Theatre for two weeks, commencing next Monday.

In previous visits to this city the Young Adams Co. have always produced high class comedies and dramas, giving the play-loving public every satisfaction. This engagement will be no exception to the rule, and successful plays will be produced during the engagement, all properly mounted with correct scenic effects.

Vaudeville, always interesting, will be offered between the acts, and an enjoyable engagement is anticipated. Among the plays to be produced will be "In Secret Service," a highly romantic drama of the present period, thrilling situations and plenty of comedy. "Ivory O'More," described as the sweetest drama ever produced, being the story of the love and heart aches of an Irish emigrant girl to the new world, and her adventures. "The Gamblers," and "Butterfly on the Wheel," are among others to be produced, including "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine."

GREAT POPULAR HIT.

Gus Mortimer and Harry Moore in the leading comedy roles, and Deborah Thornton, prima donna, will begin a four week engagement. The company also includes Daisy Mosher, semi prima donna, Babe Miller, soubrette and cyclone wooden shoe dancer, and Jack Slater, soloist, beside a very attractive chorus, said to put on musical numbers in the most up to date manner. For the four week engagement of this new company which is introduced at a much greater expense than the Lyric has previously entertained, the price of admission will be—Evening, 20 and 30 cents; matinee, 15 and 20 cents.

Unique Monday, Marguerite Clark "In Girls."

The daintiest and most charming little picture actress, Marguerite Clark, will appear at the Lyric on Monday in a dandy Paramount picture, "Girls," and it certainly is very good. The story is about three girls who just hated men, and they solemnly swore to see no man, listen to no man, kiss no man; but accidents will happen. A mere man fed into their apartment one night, pursued by another woman's husband and faced them, three raging furies—but it wouldn't be fair to tell you. You'll just have to see this picture. Two other very interesting reels will be shown.

The Nurse told Her to Give OLIVEINE EMULSION

THE GREAT HEALTH RESTORER

South Brookfield, Queens Co., N.S., Oct. 1919.

"Our little girl was very sick with Stomach Troubles and different foods were recommended but everything until a nurse told me to give her OLIVEINE EMULSION. She is now a big, healthy baby and I would not be without it in the house. For coughs and colds and as a health builder it is the best to be had. We recommended OLIVEINE EMULSION to quite a few who were suffering from the effects of influenza and they used it with good results."

(Name on request)

OLIVEINE EMULSION is more than an ideal cough remedy, to pave the way for a quick recovery from heavy colds and deep-seated coughs. It is a body builder—gives strength to the weak—tones up and invigorates the whole system. It is pleasant to take and is agreeable to the most sensitive stomach.
