

BURGLARS MAKE A DARING BREAK*Force Way Into Henderson &
Hunt's and Steal Goods Valued at $80

A daring break was made in the store of Henderson & Hunt in Charlotte street, presumably by two men, who were planning a trip out of town, and bent on taking it in their own way, but running the risk of having to take one of a different sort. Two suit cases, two suits of clothes, two pairs of boots and three or four shirts comprised the extent of their booty. The goods are valued at about $80.

The iron network or shutter which encased a big window in the alley alongside the store was pried away from its holdings, the glass of one of the windows broken, and the lock on the inside window put out of order. In this way an entrance to the store was gained. A large rock of clothing was first examined and two suits of clothes taken off of it. Matches were found about the floor of the store.

The cash drawers and the cash registers were not touched. It is believed that whoever made the break must have waited until the police on the beat were on another part of it, as the noise of the breaking glass and chiselling might have easily been heard.

MENZIES CASE TAKEN UP

The preliminary examination in the charge against George F. Menzies was continued in the police court this morning. E. C. Weyman acting for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company said that he expected to have more witnesses, but they had not appeared. L. P. D. Tilley, K. C., counsel for the prisoner said that any witnesses for the prosecution should have been subpoenaed and the case not allowed to drag on a charge of having stolen $6.10 which was the only specific sum mentioned.

Miss Weatherhead was then recalled and some small accounts were dealt with and among others it was shown that sixty cents on August 26 had been credited only as twenty cents. The magistrate suggested that the balance might have been credited on a later day and that very clear evidence to the contrary would have to be shown in order to convince a jury.

Menzies was remanded until this afternoon.

COUNTY COURT

The case of Thompson vs. Christopher came up for trial before Judge Forbes without a jury in the county court this morning. This action is to recover $87, the amount of a promissory note made by the defendant payable to the order of the plaintiff. Both parties reside at Silver Falls. The consideration for the note was several tons of hay and some harness. Soon after the sale of the hay, it was burned, and a dispute now arises as to the quantity of hay.

A judgment was entered for the plaintiff for $87.50. Col. J. R. Armstrong, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and G. H. Y. Belva for the defendant.

The case of O'Neil Bros. vs. Ella I. McManus, was postponed for two weeks on the unavoidable absence of L. A. Conlon, the plaintiff's solicitor.

IS IT ANOTHER
GOULD VICTORY?*That Inspection of The Valley
Railway Route*PREMIER DID NOT GO*His Solemn Pledges to Greenfield
People Likely to be Disregarded
—Royalty Route Much More Profitable For The American Manipulator

Woodstock, N. B., May 29—There were some suggestive and amusing incidents connected with the trip of the members of the government in their tour of "inspection" of the Valley Railway routes to Andover on Wednesday. Premier Fleming was not present when the party was ready to start from Woodstock, and it is said that some pointed remarks from a Carleton county representative were instrumental in a 'phone call to the premier to come along. The train was held until his arrival, and it is noted that he only went as far as Centerville, and did not take part in the "inspection" proceedings, but returned home. The scant courtesy shown the premier by his colleagues is the subject of considerable comment among his personal friends.

The Royalty route to Andover is said to have "impressed" the party, which is not strange when it is known that the landowners along this location had nearly all been settled with the right of way several months ago. Mr. Gould, who accompanied the party, strongly favors this route. It is near the border and will put him in close touch with his electric system and give him an opportunity to capture business for the C. P. R., which is now handled by the Bangor & Aroostook Railway.

The wily American can also build this section for about $14,000 a mile.

The Greenfield people are up in arms, and feel that the iron-clad promises of Mr. Fleming's government should be carried out. He gave them the positive assurance that the road would be built through Greenfield. The St. John & Quebec Railway company let the contract between Centerville and Andover the first of April, and it was intended to be decided upon the location during the last session of the legislature. Owing to the decided stance of the government supporters in Greenfield, and in view of Mr. Fleming's promise, they hesitated to make a move, but the Dugal charges and other recent events have given them an opportunity to decide the matter. It looks very much like another Gould victory.

FAIRVILLE W. C. T. U. IN QUARTERLY SESSION

The quarterly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held in Fairville Baptist church yesterday afternoon and was a very successful and enjoyable function. The Avity of the North End, occupied the chair. An interesting programme was carried out, including a vocal solo by Mrs. Wm. Brown, and a paper on "Ruin and Narcotics" by Mrs. Crowell. The proposed rescue home for girls was also discussed.

Rev. Gilbert Earle addressed the gathering briefly on "Woman's Place and Work." Tea was served and a half hour or more spent in social converse brought the meeting to a close.

Tomorrow will be tag day in Lancaster and plans have been made for a diligent canvass of the entire parish. The community council believe a children's playground to be a necessity and have already ordered equipment to be installed on the school grounds, so they have expressed their faith in the movement and the people's response before the collecting begins.

There is more than the playgrounds at stake; the community spirit so lately aroused would receive a serious setback if the financial returns of the parish had been thought by well intentioned citizens to be not only a good object for the parish to support but a feeder on further hampered effort toward other improvements.

Arrangements have been made to provide lunch for the taggers and an efficient committee of ladies have allotted districts to collectors who will work in pairs. There will be no overlapping.

The following young ladies will tag under proper supervision: Misses Marie Ready, Hope Crowell, Blanche McColligan, Kate Fox, Myrtle Fowler, Helen Reed, Elita Stevens, Hattie Thorne, Eva Carrigan, Lola Stears, Mildred Black, Helen Camp, Gladys Ross, Gertrude Cole, Grace Sime, Emma Crowell, Bertha Taylor, Helen Sime, Elsie Byers, Laura Sime, Irene Stymest, Marian McMurray, Agnes Gleason, Helen Hennessey, Sadie Stevens, Jennie McKim, Mabel Ferris, Vivian McColligan, Dorothy Sutton, Eleanor Cline, Elsie Shaw, Annie Hennessey, Alice Mollory, Elizabeth McMillan, Florence Burgess, Irene Mollory, Clara Stevens, Hattie Cheesman, Marion Stevens, Colette Keenan, Lillian Gleason, Myrtle Burgess, Bessie Magee.

On Thursday night after a rousing song service by the choir, Dr. Burrows preached on the subject "Almost a Christian." Several accepted the evangelist's invitation to be "wholly a Christian."
