

Ambassador testifies to a rising power of thought among our Ministers.

It is a cause of great gratitude that we have facilities in our institutions suitable to the enlargement of our Denominational usefulness. Our Missionary organization is liberal, large, and needs great resources. We are endeavoring to follow the settler far into the wilds of our new townships, among the miners of Lake Huron, and supply the moral needs of the rising towns and villages of our Province to our utmost ability as a Church. First of all our Institutions,—these claim the sympathy of the benevolent, the enterprising co-operation of the patriotic, and the liberal support of the rich ; and think, too, of our Sabbath Schools, to stimulate their increase and multiply their interest. Encourage a spirit of cheerful, continuous charity, which secures the Divine blessing, and is promised eternal rewards.

And let us seek, above all, the blessed unction of a holy life, to ennoble our experience ; let us be zealous in good works, that we may show forth the praise of our exalted Redeemer.

Let us promptly aid our Lay and Travelling Preachers in their efforts to save souls, and encourage them in any measure adapted to secure their ministerial efficiency in their endeavours to diffuse the Gospel of the blessed God. Go on, dear Brethren, in the work of the Lord. Sinners are perishing, crime is alarming, Christ is pleading, our adversaries are combining ; but, through the mercy of God, our prospects are brightening. The Gospel we possess is "the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth." The time is hastening when our stewardship will close. God is able to make "all things work together for good to them that love God." Look back to sainted fathers, now glorified, for examples. Look forward, through the promises, in holy, ardent hope ; and may God make you perfect in every good work, to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ : to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Yours, dear Brethren,

In behalf of the Conference,

JOHN GARNER, PRESIDENT.
WILLIAM ROWE, SECRETARY.

BRAMPTON, 15th April, 1864.
