The solution of problems was my bread and butter. Not that I was a professor of mathematics, or conductor of a puzzle column in some juvenile monthly but if one "took, stole and carried away against the peace and dig-nity of the state," I was hired to find

So it came to pass that the robbery of the safe of Meekins & Co. furnished me a problem. But it was one of those problems which solve themselves, and in two hours I felt certain of my man. I only wondered that Meekins himself had not moved in the matter. But then Mr. Meekins was a wonderfully kind-hearted and credulous man.

Inasmuch as Gorge Strong slept every night in the store, and the safe had been blown open, I determined to put the matter clearly before the young man, and advise him as to his best

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE, Hamilton, Mo., June 14th, 1881.

B, J. Kendall, & Co.,—Genis:—This is to certify that I have used Kendall's Spavin Cure and have found if to be all it is recommented to be and in fact more too; I have removed by using the above Calous, Bone Spavins, Ring-bones, Splints, and can cheerfully testify and recommend it to be the best thing for any bony substance I have ever used and I have tried many as I have made that my study or years.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE, New Hamburg, Ont, Dec. 28th, 1881,
Mr. F. H. McCallom, Dear sir:—The bottle of Dr. Kendall's Spavin Cure, bought of you last summer, gave me the utmost satisfaction and performed a wonderful cure upon a mare nineteen years old, belonging to me, whi-h was badly spavined for ten years. She was so lame that I could hardly get her to move. The lameness is entirely gone after using half a bottle of the cure, could harmy generater using name a entirely gone after using name again, and she is like a young horse again.

Yours truly,

J. F. ROTH.

From the Oneonta Press, N. Y. DNEONTA, New York, Jan. 6th, 1881.

Early last summer Messrs B. J., Kendail & Co., of Enseburg Falls. Vt., made a contract with the publishers of the Press for a half edumin advertisement for one year setting forth the merits of Kendail's Spavin Cure. At the Jsame time we secured from the firm a quantity of books, entitled Dr. Kendail's Treatise on the 'Horse and his Diseases, which we are giving to advance paying subscribers to the Press as a premium.

About the time the advertisement first appeared in this paper, Mr. P. G. Schermerhorn, who resides rear Colliers, had a spavined horse. He read the advertisement and concluded to text the efficacy of the remedy, although his friends read the advertisement au-read the advertisement au-efficacy of the remedy, efficacy of the remedy, lamehed at his credulity.
