A young man entered Campbell's lunch room on Main street last evening and after eating some of the good things provided by the proprietor tried to clear out without paying for them. An argument ensued and as a result Officer Perry was called to act as referee. The presence of the arm of the law induced the young man to see the error of his ways and he produced the wherewithal to pay for his meal and departed.

Contracts have just been let for a very handsome and modern building for the Royal Bank, to be put on King street, East, next to the James building, King and Yonge strets, Toronto. The new structure will be about six stories high, will be of Venetian architecture, and will in every respect be a creditable acquisition to Toronto's many fine bank quarters. It will have a frontage of 50 feet and a depth of 110 feet. The upper stories will be laid out in general business offices.—Halifax Echo.

Series inaugurated Last Evening.

Will Take Up Study of Missionary Conditions in Islands of Pacific-Miss Payson's Concise Outline-The Following Meetings.

St. Andrew's Cadet Ce. will meet for drill tonight at the school room at 7.30.

The United Baptist Mission Study Class, which includes ladies and gentlemen from every Baptist church in the city, commenced its winter course

The classes have been of invaluable benefit to mission workers for some winters past, providing a gold mine of information on missionary topics of the hour. Already the work and possibilities for work in China, Japan and Africa have been familiarized, and this able delay it was fixed and enabled to proceed.

Last evening the steamer Elaine broke down soon after leaving her wharf and was obliged to put back for repairs. After about an hour's delay the boat was able to proceed.

The steamer Calvin Austin was delayed at Eastport last night by the storm and did not arrive in port until nine o'clock this morning. The return trip to Boston via Maine ports was made this afternoon.

Policeman Charles Rankine has reported William and Fred Baxter for brutally treating a horse. The officer says the men allowed the horse to stand for an hour on the Marsh Road last night in the cold wind and rain.

James Thompson, a respected resident of Black's Harbor, was in town last week. Mr. Thompson is the father of twenty-nine children, all but four of whom are living. Twelve of these are sons, mostly residing in this county.—St. Croix Courier.

billities for work in China, Japan and Africa have been familiarized, and this new course has for its subject, "The Islands of its we course has for its subject, "The class motto for the winter is "Christus Redeemer.)

Miss Stella Payson, of Brussels St. church, was the teacher at last night's meeting. She very interestingly introduced the whole winter's course, using a map of her own draughting, which clearly indicated the Islands of the Pacific to be told about from fortnight. A very concise idea of the series of lessons was thus given, eliciting intense interest.

At the close of the talk, Miss Ida Newcombe, returned missionary, spoke fervently of the need of united prayer and united effort of all kinds in behalf of mission affairs in India.

The succeeding meetings of the Mission Study Class are booked as follows:—
